Architextiles Mark Garcia, 2006 Focusing on the intersections between textiles and architectural design this title communicates the full range of possibilities for a multidisciplinary design hybrid It examines the generative concepts forms patterns materials processes technologies and practices that are driving this cross fertilisation in contemporary urban and architectural design Architextiles represent a transition stage in the reorientation of spatial design towards a more networked dynamic interactive communicative and multifunctional state The paradigms of fashion and textile design with their unique accelerated aesthetics and ability to embody a burgeoning composite and complex range of properties such as lightness flow flexibility surface complexity and movement have a natural affinity with architecture's shifts towards a more liquid state The preoccupation with textiles in architecture challenges traditional perceptions and practices in interior architectural urban textile and fashion design

Interweaving new designs and speculative projects for the future Architextiles brings together architects designers engineers technologists theorists and materials researchers to unravel these new methodologies of fabricating space Contributors include Dominique Perrault DPA Lars Spuybroek NOX and University of Atlanta Will Alsop RCA and SMC Alsop Nigel Coates RCA and Branson Coates Architecture Matilda McQuaid Cooper Hewitt Museum Ron Arad RCA and Ron Arad Associates Tristan Simmonds Daniel Bosia and Martin Self Arup Advanced Geometry Unit David Wakefield Tensys Dagmar Richter UCLA Peter Testa and Devyn Weiser Columbia University and Testa Architecture Tom Verebes Yosuke Obuchi and Theodore Spyropoulos AA_DRL Robert Kronenburg University of Liverpool Anne Toomey RCA Bradley Quinn Marie O Mahoney Mark Garcia RCA International Textiles ,2006 Textile ,1999 Textiles Magazine ,2001 Visual Research Methods in Fashion Julia Gaimster,2015-06-23 This book is unique in that it covers the visual research process and detail and relates it not only to fashion design but also to all areas of the fashion industry TD & T. ,2001 Law, Anthropology, and the Constitution of the Social Alain Pottage,Martha Mundy,2004-06-24 This collection of interdisciplinary essays explores how persons and things the central elements of the social are fabricated by legal rituals and institutions The contributors legal and anthropological theorists alike focus on a set of specific institutional and ethnographic contexts and some unexpected and thought provoking analogies emerge from this intellectual encounter between law and anthropology For example contemporary anxieties about the legal status of the biotechnological body seem to resonate with the questions addressed by ancient Roman law in its treatment of dead bodies The analogy between copyright and the transmission of intangible designs in Melanesia suddenly makes western images of authorship seem quite unfamiliar A comparison between law and laboratory science presents the production of legal artefacts in new light These studies are of particular relevance at a time when law faced with the inventiveness of biotechnology finds it increasingly difficult to draw the line between persons and things
