SURVIVAL It s true There are no great people There are only great challenges that some ordinary people must rise to meet Much has been written about those individuals who have risen to meet such challenges Their stories fascinate us because we love a winner a survivor a hero PEACE IN THE RED ROCK VALLEY is an alcoholic s own gripping yet hilariously heartwarming story of survival It is a story of the tragedy and heartbreak and of the humor and mirth of an unexpected diversion into the journey through and finally recovery from an incessant merciless yet subtle and almost fatal addiction to a drug that happens to be called alcohol It is an entertaining expos of the bizarre workings and ravaging power of the alcoholic mind left unchecked and of the surprising simplicity of recovery from such a demoralized state It ll have you laughing and then it will invade your heart Because of the stigma attached not many of our stories have been told but with today s open mindedness toward addiction those of us who have survived it might just also be heroes There is one thing for certain our stories are definitely fascinating     The Register of the Kentucky State Historical Society Kentucky Historical Society,1921
