Tony Harrison:

Tony Harrison and the Classics Sandie Byrne, 2022 This volume presents fifteen chapters focusing on different aspects of the work of Tony Harrison showing how his adaptations and translations explored themes of language class access to art and the causes and effects of war

New Light on Tony Harrison Edith Hall, 2019-01-03 New Light on Tony Harrison explores the lifetime achievement and influence of one of Britain's greatest living poets Tony Harrison It explores his extensive body of poems and his profound contribution to the literary world

Tony Harrison Joe Kelleher, 1996 Tony Harrison is one of the most popular and respected poets and verse writers for the stage working in Britain today In his lucid critical study Joe Kelleher brings Harrison's diverse output together under coherent themes from his early published verse The Loiners 1970 to his accomplished translation and adaptation of The Oresteia 1981 through to his recent work for stage and television including The Shadow of Hiroshima 1995 He pays particular critical and theoretical attention to the issues of autobiography translation testimony and remembrance and to poetry's obligation to face up publicly to the worst things of twentieth century history Joe Kelleher's book considers Harrison's work as that of a dramatic poet in the widest sense staging personal utterance upon the landscape of public concerns

A Sociological Approach to Poetry Translation Jacob S. D. Blakesley, 2018-10-31 This volume provides an in depth comparative study of translation practices and the role of the poet translator across different countries and in so doing demonstrates the need for poetry translation to be extended beyond close reading and situated in context Drawing on a corpus composed of data from national library catalogues and Worldcat the book examines translation practices of English language French language and Italian language poet translators through the lens of a broad sociological approach Chapters 2 through 5 look at national poetic movements literary markets and the historical and socio political contexts of translations with Chapter 6 offering case studies of prominent and representative poet translators from each tradition A comprehensive set of appendices offers readers an opportunity to explore this data in greater detail Taken together the volume advocates for the need to study translation data against broader aesthetic historical and political trends and will be of particular interest to students and scholars in translation studies and comparative literature

Selected Poems Tony Harrison, 1987 A revised edition of Tony Harrison's award winning Selected Poems This indispensable new selection of Tony Harrison's poems includes over sixty poems from his famous sonnet sequence The School of Eloquence and the remarkable long poem v a meditation in a vandalized Leeds graveyard which caused enormous controversy when it was broadcast on Channel 4 in 1987 and is now regarded as one of the key poems of the late twentieth century This substantially revised and updated edition now also features a generous selection of Harrison's most recent work including the acclaimed poems he wrote for the Guardian on the Gulf War and then from the front line in the Bosnian War which won him the Wilfred Owen Award for Poetry in 2007 Selected Poems is a collection to be savoured by fans of Carol Ann Duffy Seamus Heaney Simon Armitage and Sophie Hannah A voracious appetite for language Brilliant passionate outrageous abrasive but also as in the family sonnets immeasurably tender Harold Pinter In the front rank of contemporary British poets Harrison's range is exhilarating his clarity and technical mastery a sharp pleasure Melvyn Bragg The poem v is the most outstanding social poem of the last twenty five years Seldom has a British poem of such personal intensity had such universal range Martin Booth Poems written in a style which I feel I have all my life been waiting for Stephen Spender A poet of great technical accomplishment whose work insists that it is speech rather than page bound silence Sean O'Brien The Oxford Companion to Twentieth Century Poetry Collected Poems Tony Harrison, 2016-04-07 Tony Harrison published his first pamphlet of poems in 1964 and for over fifty years has been a prominent force in modern poetry His poetic range is truly far reaching from the intimate tenderness of family life and personal love to war poems written from Bosnia and savage public outcries against politicians In The Collected Poems Harrison draws deeply both on classical tradition and on the vernacular of the street Combining the private and the public in a way Harrison has made distinctly his own and drawing on his working class upbringing in Leeds these are powerful poems for modern times This is the first complete paperback collection of one of Britain's most controversial and critically acclaimed poets Tony Harrison is the greatest poet of the second half of the 20th century He writes brilliantly about class love and Britain Daniel Radcliffe Harrison is a masterly technician and the most fiery and indelible English poet of the age This book is a vineyard on a volcano Paul Farley
