Teaching and Learning Vocabulary Elfrieda H. Hiebert, Michael L. Kamil, 2005-05-06 This book presents scientific evidence from leading research programs that address persistent issues regarding the role of vocabulary in text comprehension Part I examines how vocabulary is learned Part II presents instructional interventions that Bridging the English Learner Achievement Gap Ray Garcia, 2015-04-25 In spite of decades of school reform the achievement gap between English learners and English proficient students has narrowed little This book introduces the Sustainability Framework a step by step process that will help educators at all levels increase school attendance and academic success for ELL students This reform navigation tool identifies patterns and trends in the deployment of a reform and subsequently allows leaders to make necessary adjustments to extend accelerate or terminate a given reform Bridging the English Learner Achievement Gap offers a compelling research grounded way for schools with a substantial ELL population to successfully accommodate their students

Emerging Issues and Trends in Education Theodore S. Ransaw, Richard Majors, 2017-08-01 As classrooms across the globe become increasingly more diverse it is imperative that educators understand how to meet the needs of students with varying demographic backgrounds Emerging Issues and Trends in Education presents case studies from academics who have all at one point been teachers in K 12 classrooms addressing topics such as STEM as well as global issues related to race gender education education policy and parental engagement The contributors take an international approach including research about Nigerian Chinese Native American and Mexican American classrooms With a focus on multidisciplinary perspectives Emerging Issues and Trends in Education is reflective of the need to embrace different ways of looking at problems to improve education for all students Preventing Long-Term ELs Margarita Espino Calderon, Liliana Minaya-Rowe, 2010-10-22 Offers invaluable resources for teachers and administrators taking a proactive approach to eliminating the subgroup of long term English learners Yee Wan Multilingual Programs Coordinator Santa Clara County Office of Education San Jose CA This book encapsulates a serious call to action challenging leaders and educators to forge bold yet eminently practical pathways toward high quality evidence based systematic instruction Virginia R Champion Senior Education Specialist Region One Education Service Center Edinburg TX 10 keys to keeping English learners from falling through the cracks Students who struggle with academic English are likely to struggle with academic content throughout their school years This practical guidebook s 10 components for success will help educators at all levels close this achievement gap Best selling authors Margarita Espino Calder n and Liliana Minaya Rowe provide step by step instructions for integrating vocabulary and writing across the curriculum to improve students learning Key features include A clearly articulated evidence based professional development program for teaching diverse English language learners effectively Coverage of a variety of program types Research based tools for improving instruction and measuring learning progressions Methods for implementing an EL program while meeting core standards and content objectives Inside are studies from a principal and superintendent and an array of assessment tools checklists and resources to guide you through the improvement process and establish a meaningful accountability system for the benefit of teachers administrators parents and students Becoming Literate in English as a Second Language Susan R. Goldman, Henry T. Trueba, 1987 This volume contains empirical research on issues relevant to understanding the educational experiences of minority language students in American public schools Bringing together some of the most recent empirical findings regarding the acquisition of literacy in English as a second language from fields such as anthropology special education cognitive psychology discourse analysis and sociolinguistics it helps readers understand the difficulties involved in the process of English literacy acquisition of speakers of other languages and the reasons why some minorities experience lower levels of academic success Proceedings of the Linguistic Minority Project Conference ,1988 Language Policies and (Dis)Citizenship Vaidehi Ramanathan, 2013-08-07 This volume explores the concept of citizenship and argues that it should be understood both as a process of becoming and the ability to participate fully rather than as a status that can be inherited acquired or achieved From a courtroom in Bulawayo to a nursery in Birmingham the authors use local contexts to foreground how the vulnerable particularly those from minority language backgrounds continue to be excluded whilst offering a powerful demonstration of the potential for change offered by individual agency resistance and struggle In addressing questions such as under what local conditions does citizenship happen what role do language policies and pedagogic practices play and what kinds of margins and borders keep humans from fully participating The chapters in this volume shift the debate away from visas and passports to more uncertain and contested spaces of interpretation Educational Considerations ,1998 Implementing Schoolwide Programs: Profiles of successful schoolwide programs ,1998 Educating Via Language Emma Santos Castillo, 1999 Understanding Curriculum Reform in One School Carol Ann Barnes, 1997 Instructor ,1971-08

 Projects, FY 1984-85* ,1983 The Unfinished Journey Laurie Olsen, 1994 Restructuring public education is central to the task of creating a healthy just society For the past 2 years California Tomorrow s Education for a Diverse Society School Restructuring Project has visited 32 randomly selected schools throughout California and talked with 1 000 teachers students parents administrators and advocates involved in the restructuring movement The research was shaped by three concerns 1 changing demographics require changes in schools 2 research has documented inequalities rooted in institutional structures and 3 new challenges require new thinking about schools and support for educators engaged in the change process The first section of this report New Compacts discusses the new roles and relationships being forged among teachers administrators public agency personnel parents and community child advocates Section 2 Curriculum and Pedagogy examines schools instructional reforms focusing on student grouping multicultural curriculum technology and language minority teaching issues Section 3 The Policy and Challenge of System wide Change highlights the crucial role of technical assistance infrastructure and professional development support funding considerations and accountability concerns Section 4 contains appendices on research methodology demographic information a case study field guide phone sample interview questions restructuring resources a glossary and a case study school contact list Contains 150 references MLH
