South Tyrol:

South Tyrol Rolf Steininger, South Tyrol a region in the heart of the Alps about half the size of Connecticut brings into sharp focus an important part of twentieth century history Tyrol a province that had been part of Austria for over 500 years and was almost totally German speaking was split in two after World War I and the southern part awarded to Italy as spoils of war The first phase to follow after the split of Tyrol was systematic subjection by the Italian Fascists of what had been a regional majority in South Tyrol but was now a minority within Italy In a second phase to gain an Italian majority the country was settled with Italians from the south who had a totally different mentality from the Italians residing in South Tyrol With the emergence of National Socialism in Germany and eventually with the Hitler Mussolini Agreement of 1939 a third phase emerged an experiment in ethnic cleansing called the Option Eighty six percent of all South Tyroleans agreed to leave South Tyrol and become citizens of Greater Germany After World War II the region was not returned to Austria South Tyrol became the first victim of the Cold War It took almost forty years of hard bargaining before South Tyrol was granted real autonomy in 1969 This resolution is now regarded as a model for solving minority conflicts Rolf Steininger traces the history of this troubled region during several periods 1918 1922 in which he covers the period from the division of Tyrol to the march on Bozen 1922 1938 in which he reviews fascist policy towards South Tyrol the Option of 1939 the resettlement and so called reunification from 1943 1945 South Tyrol s role as a bargaining chip in the Cold War and the Gruber Gasperi Agreement of 1946 and the volume closes with a discussion of the plan negotiated in 1969 for a new autonomy for South Tyrol that came to be known as the Package Rolf Steininger is professor and head of the Institute of Contemporary History at the University of Innsbruck He is European Union Jean Monnet Professor senior fellow of the Eisenhower Center for American Studies of the University of New Orleans board member of the European Community Studies Association and the author of numerous books articles and television documentaries South Tyrol.
