The Tomorrow-tamer and Other Stories Margaret Laurence,1970 The ten stories gathered together in The Tomorrow Tamer are Margaret Laurence's first published fiction Set in raucous and often terrifying Ghana where shiny Jaguars and modern jazz jostle for eminence against fetish figures tribal rites and the unchanging beat of jungle drums the stories tell of individuals European and African trying to come to terms with the frightening world brought about by the country's new freedom With the same compassion and understanding she would bring to her later fiction set in Canada Laurence succeeds brilliantly in capturing the atmosphere of a continent and of individual men and women struggling for survival under the impact of the wind of change

Margaret Laurence's Epic Imagination Paul Comeau,2005-12-23 Although at times painfully insecure about her creative ability and achievement Margaret Laurence nevertheless remained fiercely loyal to her artistic vision an archetypal vision of loss exile and redemption that sought comprehensive expression in the epic mode that shapes the Bible Dante's Divine Comedy Milton's Paradise Lost and ultimately the Manawaka world of Hagar Shipley Rachel Cameron Stacey MacAindra and Morag Gunn Paul Comeau traces the development of Margaret Laurence's epic voice from its tentative beginnings in her African fiction to its culmination in the epic Manawaka Cycle a Dantesque journey through an infernal state of self destructive pride out of a purgatorial paralysis of self doubt and on to a kind of paradisaic fulfillment in self knowledge Laurence discovered in epic a fitting mode at once to requite her debt to the ancestors and to break free of their influence to portray the world through the sight of her own eyes In so doing she became the enduring epic voice of a country and a generation

Margaret Laurence,1964 Racial Attitudes in English-Canadian Fiction, 1905-1980 Terrence Craig,1987-08-31 Examines stereotypes in Canadian literature reflecting both the racist view that Jews and other aliens could never become good white

Canadians because of their inherent defects and the belief that with time they could assimilate Discusses the origins of ethnic tension in Canada Up to 1939 English Canadian literature expressed the demand for British Protestant political and cultural dominance The popular novelist Charles Gordon a Presbyterian minister viewed the British especially the Scots as the chosen race and even when trying to present Jews sympathetically he treated them as stereotypes John Murray Gibbon was violently antisemitic F P Grove saw the Jews as urban businessmen exploiting the peasant immigrants After 1945 antisemitism became unfashionable Works by Jews such as Mordecai Richler exposed anti Jewish discrimination and English Canadians produced works attacking antisemitism and racism Alien Heart Lyall Powers,2012-11-02 Today almost two decades after her death Margaret Laurence remains one of Canada s best known and most beloved writers Twice winner of the Governor General s Award for fiction she was as the late William French wrote more profoundly admired than any other Canadian novelist of her generation Lyall Powers is both a respected scholar of literature and a lifelong friend of Laurence s having met her when they were students together at Winnipeg s United College in the 1940s Alien Heart is the first full length biography of Margaret that combines personal knowledge and insights about Laurence with a study of her work which often paralleled the events and concerns in her own life Drawing on letters personal correspondence journals and interviews Lyall Powers discusses the struggles and triumphs Laurence experienced in her efforts to understand herself in the roles of writer wife mother and public figure He portrays a deeply compassionate and courageous woman who yet felt troubled by conflicting demands While Laurence s work is not directly autobiographical Powers illustrates how her writing expressed many of the same dilemmas and how the resolution her characters achieved in the novels and stories had an impact on Laurence s own life Powers provides an in depth analysis of all Laurence s work including the early African essays fiction and translations and her books for children as well as the beloved Manawaka fiction The study clearly shows the progression and expression of Laurence as a writer of great humanity and conscience The Manawaka World of Margaret Laurence Clara Thomas,1976 Memoria e sogno Anne de Vaucher Gravili,Alessandro Gebbia,1996 Crossing the River Margaret Laurence,Kristjana Gunnars,1988 In Crossing the River thirteen Canadian and European scholars celebrate the life and work of Margaret Laurence all students of Laurence s art should find this a useful probing casebook The Globe and Mail

Margaret Laurence Writes Africa and Canada Laura K. Davis,2017-05-18 Margaret Laurence Writes Africa and Canada is the first book to examine how Laurence addresses decolonization and nation building in 1950s Somalia and Ghana and 1960s and 1970s English Canada Focusing on Laurence s published works as well as her unpublished letters not yet discussed by critics the book articulates how Laurence and her characters are poised between African colonies of occupation during decolonization and the settler colony of English Canada during the implementation of Canadian multiculturalism Laurence s Canadian characters are often divided subjects who are not quite members of their ancestral imperial cultures yet also not truly native to their nation Margaret Laurence Writes Africa and Canada shows how Laurence and her characters negotiate complex tensions between self and nation and argues that Laurence s African and Canadian writing demonstrates a divided Canadian subject who holds significant implications for both the individual and the country of Canada Bringing together Laurence s writing about Africa and Canada Davis offers a unique contribution to the study of Canadian literature The book is an original interpretation of Laurence s work and reveals how she displaces the simple notion that Canada is a sum total of different cultures and conceives Canada as a mosaic that is in flux and constituted through continually changing social relations
