Hagar, Sarah, And Their Children Letty M. Russell, In different ways Judaism Christianity and Islam all trace their beginnings to Abraham His wives Hagar and Sarah though also pivotal in the story have received far less attention In this book however noted Jewish Christian and Muslim scholars focus on Hagar Sarah and their children from Ishmael and Isaac to their many descendents through the centuries Moving from ancient and medieval sources to contemporary appropriations of the Sarah and Hagar story the authors begin with an overview of the three religions from their scriptural beginnings to their contemporary questions They then explore how the story was developed after its canonization in rabbinic interpretations in the stories of Islam and in the teachings of the early church fathers They also present contemporary womanist and feminist perspectives Timely relevant and provocative this book provides an entree into interreligious discussion and understanding

The Thousand Generation Covenant: Dutch Reformed Covenant Theology and Group Identity in Colonial South Africa, 1652-1814 Gerstner,2021-12-06 This study presents the religious factor in the development of a separatistic group identity among the forebears of the Afrikaners during the Dutch colonial period of South African history Dutch Reformed covenant theology and baptism practice rooted in the thousand generation covenant theory helped to shape this self understanding It traces the basic developments of covenant theology in the Netherlands during the period and demonstrates how these concepts were conveyed to colonial South Africa The dominant strain of covenantal thought treated the entire community as redeemed and called to be separate It was presented through a variety of means through which virtually every colonist was exposed This study offers a balanced historical approach to the role of theological concepts in the colonial roots of Afrikaner group identity It answers traditional scholarship in the field which either directly identify the concepts behind the development of apartheid with Calvinist theology or more recently deny that the Reformed faith had any role in the development of apartheid ideology until the twentieth century Torah Nevi'im Ve-Ketuvim ,1917
