Uprooted Life:

If This Is a Woman Denisa Neštáková, Katja Grosse-Sommer, Borbála Klacsmann, Jakub Drábik, 2021-12-14 The present volume contains thirteen articles based on work presented at the XX Century Conference If This Is A Woman at Comenius University Bratislava in January 2019 The conference was organized against anti gender narratives and related attacks on academic freedom and women s rights currently all too prevalent in East Central Europe The papers presented at the conference and in this volume focus to a significant extent on this region They touch upon numerous points concerning gendered experiences of World War II and the Holocaust By purposely emphasizing the female experience in the title we encourage to fill the lacunae that still four decades after the enrichment of Holocaust studies with a gendered lens exist when it comes to female experiences Jews on the Move: Modern Cosmopolitanist Thought and its Others Cathy Gelbin, Sander L Gilman, 2019-12-18 Jewish cosmopolitanism is key to understanding both modern globalization and the old and new nationalism Jewish cultures existing in the Western world during the last two centuries have been and continue to be read as hyphenated phenomena within a specific national context such as German Jewish or American Jewish culture Yet to what extent do such nationalized constructs of Jewish culture and identity still dominate Jewish self expressions and the discourses about them in the rapidly globalizing world of the twenty first century In a world in which Diaspora societies have begun to reshape themselves as part of a super or nonnational identity what has happened to a cosmopolitan Jewish identity In a post Zionist world where one of the newest and most substantial Diaspora communities is that of Israelis in the new globalized culture is being Jewish suddenly something that can reach beyond the older models of Diasporic integration or nationalism Which new paradigms of Jewish self location within the evolving and conflicting global discourses about the nation race Genocides anti Semitism colonialism and postcolonialism gender and sexual identities does the globalization of Jewish cultures open up To what extent might transnational notions of Jewishness such as European Jewish identity create new discursive margins and centers Is there a possibility that a virtual makom Jewish space might constitute itself Recent studies on cosmopolitanism cite the Jewish experience as a key to the very notion of the movement of people for good or for ill as well as for the resurgence of modern nationalism These theories reflect newer models of postcolonialism and transnationalism in regard to global Jewish cultures The present volume spans the widest reading of Jewish cosmopolitanisms to study Jews on the move This book was originally published as a special issue of the European Review of History

Taking Stock Sean B. Franzel, Ilinca Iurascu, Petra S. McGillen, 2024-10-21 The volume examines the proliferation of inventorying models and practices as cultural techniques of knowledge organization and production during the long nineteenth century While inventories are still broadly treated as raw data and unprocessed source materials the book shows how they function as complex media formats intersecting and interfering with other material techniques to produce store distribute organize and process cultural information How do inventories work against and in dialogue with other media of collection storage and retrieval such as catalogs indexes bibliographies and archives what new media configurations do techniques of inventorying enable and how in turn are such techniques shaped by the media channels and formats they employ what is at stake in the critical effort of taking stock whether as commercial bureaucratic literary historiographical or scientific operations finally what do such operations tell us specifically about the production and circulation of knowledge in the German nineteenth century Catholic World, 1918 Writing and the Articulation of Postqualitative Research David Lee Carlson, Ananí M. Vasquez, Anna Romero, 2023-04-25 Writing and the Articulation of Postqualitative Research is a collection of experimental essays on the implications of articulating or performing qualitative research from postqualitative philosophies Although writing has been an integral part of qualitative research for better or worse throughout the history of the field the recent emergence of postqualitative inquiry necessitates a reconsideration of writing This collection of international authors explores the process and practice of writing in qualitative research from an onto epistemological perspective engaging with temporal spatial relational social cultural and affective concepts and dilemmas such as philosophical alignment advocacy in research and the privileging of written academic language for research dissemination The exploration of these questions can help qualitative researchers in the social sciences and humanities consider how modalities and processes of writing can alter shift and challenge the ways in which they articulate their research Thus rather than writing being a conveyor of the events happening during data collection or used to analyze data or display results the authors in this book consider writing as a primary agent in the research process This book has been designed for scholars in the social sciences and humanities who want to rethink how they use writing in their research endeavors and especially ones who are considering engaging with postqualitative research Bernard Eugene Meland's Unpublished Papers John N. Gaston, 2012-12-18 Bernard Eugene Meland 1899 1993 was a leader in the pragmatic tradition of constructive theology associated with the University of Chicago This volume contains more than forty six previously unpublished lectures reports and other personal documents that Meland wrote at various times between 1937 and 1979 It is a companion volume to W Creighton Peden's book Life and Thought of Bernard Eugene Meland American Constructive Theologian 1899 1993 and is intended to give the reader a deeper understanding of Meland's methods and thought Good English Henry Seidel Canby, 1925 Not The Same Little Boy Dr. Clifton H.
