This comprehensive monograph offers a complete overview of Hadid's work from her designs, drawings, and paintings to her sketches, plans, and models. Winner Pritzker Architecture Prize 2004. Zaha Hadid Complete Works: Major and recent works Zaha Hadid, 2004. Zaha Hadid Complete Works: Projects documentation Zaha Hadid, 2004. Zaha Hadid Architects. MAXXI, 2018. Zaha Hadid and Suprematism Zaha Hadid, Galerie Gmurzynska, 2012. Zaha Hadid born 1950 in Baghdad, recipient of the Pritzker Architecture Prize, designed and curated a groundbreaking exhibition at Zurich's Galerie Gmurzynska, comparing works of the Russian avant-garde with those of Zaha Hadid Architects. A fierce explosion of Russian works tore through the contemporary works by the architect in a dynamic black and white design. Created specifically for the venue, the projection of a two-dimensional drawing onto a three-dimensional space transformed the gallery into a spatial painting in which the threshold of the picture plane expanded and could be entered. Zaha Hadid translated the warped and weightless space of Russian avant-garde painting and sculpture by Kazimir Malevich, El Lissitzky, and Alexander Rodchenko into her very own architectural language. Publisher's website. Zaha Hadid Zaha Hadid, 2006. The first woman to be awarded the distinguished Pritzker Architecture Prize in 2004, Zaha Hadid is internationally known for projects that have literally shifted the geometry of buildings. The Iraqi-born London-based architect has collaborated with the Guggenheim on several projects leading up to this comprehensive retrospective, including the design for the museum's exhibition The Great Utopia in 1992. Each of Hadid's dynamic and innovative works builds on over 30 years of experimentation and research in the interrelated fields of urbanism, architecture, and design. True to Hadid's interdisciplinary approach to architecture, all mediums will be covered here. Having first achieved international recognition through her striking images and designs, Zaha Hadid is now widely known as an innovator who consistently tests the boundaries of architecture, urbanism, and design. One of her most important testing fields has been her drawings. Her reconsideration of the architectural drawing through nontraditional floor plans has had a major impact on all areas of design and architecture. Once considered unbuildable, her projects can now be seen around the world, including major projects in Europe, North America, and Asia. Hadid's most recent work incorporates smooth surfaces where walls seem to melt, floors curving upward, and ceilings that appear to compress, bend, and expand. In her designs, architecture emerges not as an isolated object but out of the surrounding landscape and urban environment, and as a result of its users' movements and paths. Her work addresses fluid geometries and artificial natures. The book features color illustrations of designs and models, previously unpublished paintings, and photographs of buildings at all stages of construction, as well as two previously unpublished interviews with Zaha Hadid. Patrik Schumacher, Gordana Fontana-Giusti, 2004. Architecture and Spectacle: A Critique Gevork Hartoonian, 2016-12-05. Focusing on six leading contemporary architects: Peter Eisenman, Frank Gehry, Bernard Tschumi, Zaha Hadid, Rem Koolhaas, and Steven Holl, this book puts forward a unique and insightful analysis of neo-avant-garde architecture. It discusses the spectacle and excess which permeates contemporary architecture in reference to the present aesthetic tendency for image making but does so by applying the tectonic of theatricality discussed by the 19th century German architect Gottfried Semper In doing so it breaks new ground by opening up a dialogue between the study of the past and the design of the present The work of each discussed architect is seen as addressing a historiographical problem To this end and this is the second important aspect of this book the chosen buildings are discussed in terms of the thematic of the culture of building the tectonic of column and wall for example rather the formal and this through a discussion that is informed by the latest available theories Having set the aesthetic implication of the processes of the digitalization of architecture the book s conclusion highlights strategies by which architecture might postpone the full consequences of digitalization and thus the becoming of architecture as ornament on its own right Zaha Hadid, Judith Turner Joseph Giovannini,2015-09-07 The juxtapositions of Zaha Hadid s architectural models and drawings and Judith Turner s photographs of the architect s buildings in this volume reveal that Hadid and Turner are complicit Hadid does not design with complete geometries in stable configurations but designs instead with incomplete or distorted geometries that are dynamic and visually unstable Turner does the same in her photographs cropping before a form completes itself in a frame that leaves the rest of the form suggested outside the frame Hadid structures her designs dynamically with diagonal lines and oblique planes playing with and against each other in three dimensional fields Zaha Hadid Philip Jodidio,2016-06-17 Covering her complete works to date and all her new work from Dubai to Guangzhou this text clearly demonstrates the progression of Hadid s career not only buildings but also furniture and interior designs and including in depth texts photos and her own drawings

Masterplanning Futures Lucy Bullivant,2012 Lucy Bullivant analyses the ideals and processes of international masterplans and their role in the evolution of many different types of urban contexts in both the developed and developing world Among the book s key themes are landscape driven schemes social equity through the reevaluation of spatial planning and the evolution of strategies responding to a range of ecological issues and the demands of social growth The author s research was enabled by grants from the Commission for Architecture and the Built Environment CABI the SFA the Netherlands Architecture Fund the Danish Embassy and support from the Alfred Herrhausen Society The World Is Not a Rectangle Jeanette Winter,2017-08-22 A Washington Post Best Children s Book of 2017 Parents Choice Recommended Get to know Zaha Hadid in this nonfiction picture book about the famed architect s life and her triumph over adversity from celebrated author illustrator Jeanette Winter Zaha Hadid grew up in Baghdad Iraq and dreamed of designing her own cities After studying architecture in London she opened her own studio and started designing buildings But as a Muslim woman Hadid faced many obstacles Determined to succeed she worked hard for many years and achieved her goals and now you can see the buildings Hadid has designed all over the world The Complete Zaha Hadid ,2017 This expanded and up to date volume showcases Zaha Hadid s remarkable and inspiring work over the course of her career Zaha Hadid Complete
