We the People of the United States

Article I

Section 1. All legislative Powers herein granted shall be vested in a Congress of the United States, which shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives.

Section 2. The House of Representatives shall be composed of Members chosen every second Year by the People of the several States, and the Electors in each State shall have the Qualifications requisite for Electors in that State.

Section 3. The Senate of the United States shall be composed of two Senators from each State, chosen by the Legislature of the State for six Years; and when they shall next meet after the first Meeting of the Senate of the United States, they shall be divided so that one third may be chosen every second Year; and if Vacancies happen, they shall be filled up in the Manner prescribed for the original Chosen.
