Value Judgements:

Human Values, Moral Values and Social Value Judgements Abdulkadir Tanrikulu, 2016-01-22 Abdulkadir Tanrikulu was born in Diyarbakir in 1961 and was educated in the journalism faculty of Ankara University He left his studies of journalism and public relations in the fourth year He worked as a journalist for two years during the most violent period in Turkey's southeast 1988-1990 Following this he took management positions in several private companies During his life following university he closely observed society He observed that the instincts of people in situations where terrorism prevails affected their behaviour in an unhealthy manner He witnessed the state becoming more aggressive and the destruction of the concept of justice and judicial organisations that would affect the future of the people He witnessed the effects of an unhealthy environment on forthcoming generations how they suffered and how families lost hope He wrote about these experiences in books several times but each time did not consider the end product to be sufficient and he abandoned these projects destroying the books The author also observed the spiritual interactions of the people and witnessed the reactions of religious organisations to an environment where terrorism was rife The books he wrote on these subjects he also destroyed without publishing If you have no respect for your profession the place you live your individual or societal identity your status within society your beliefs no matter what your ideology is if you have no respect for human values you are merely a savage Eventually he came to this conclusion if you cannot be human you are nothing but a savage

The Quest for the Description of the Law Reidar Edvinsson, 2008-09-27 My dissertation for LL.D or J.S.D Att beskriva rätten To Describe Law which was written under my bachelor surname of Andersson was presented for public examination on Nov 4 2004 Since then the text has been developed in two separate directions On the one hand three of the chapters have been made more accessible to students of jurisprudence and have been included in the second edition of the text book Rättsfilosofi samhälle och moraliskt genombildning edited by Joakim Nergelius On the other hand the whole dissertation has been revised translated and published as the present book In the time that has passed since my dissertation many things have changed On the personal level my friend and tutor Aleksander Peczenick was sadly taken away from my circle of colleagues In contrast to that sad event I have spent two nine month periods on paternity leave raising my two children Selma and Bernhard This past year I have decided to move from theory to practice and have started working in a court of law During my work on the dissertation I had the opportunity to spend a rewarding term at Rutgers University in Camden NJ visiting Professor Dennis Patterson Since this book is a continuation of that project it feels appropriate to repeat my thanks to Professor Patterson and STINT The Swedish Foundation for International Cooperation in Research and Higher Education for making that visit possible

Value Judgement James Griffin,1998-01-22 James Griffin asks how and how much we can improve our ethical standards not lift our behaviour closer to our standards but refine the standards themselves To give an answer to this question it is necessary to answer most of the questions of ethics So Value Judgement includes discussion of what a good life is like where the boundaries of the natural world come how values relate to that world how great human capacities the ones important to ethics are and where moral norms come from Throughout the book the question of what philosophy can contribute to ethics repeatedly arises Philosophical traditions such as most forms of utilitarianism and deontology and virtue ethics are Griffin contends too ambitious Ethics cannot be what philosophers in those traditions expect it to be because agents cannot be what their philosophies need them to be This clear compelling and original account of ethics will be of interest to anyone concerned with thinking about values not only philosophers but legal political and economic theorists as well L Value and System Clifford Alan Hooker, 1994 Theology and Philosophical Inquiry Vincent Brümmer, 1982 Journal of Philosophy, Psychology and Scientific Methods, 1922 Poznan Studies in the Philosophy of the Sciences and Humanities, 1976 Reports of Cases Decided in the Native Courts of the Transkeian Territories Transkeian Territories. Native Appeal Court, 1924 Philosophy in the Mid-century: Values, history and religion International Institute of Philosophy, 1958 Value Judgments Ellen Goodman, 1995-03-31 One of our most trenchant columnists takes the measure of America in the last four years Discourses of Danger & Dread Frontiers Graeme Cheeseman, Robert H. Bruce, 1996 The contributors to this volume offer a comprehensive theoretical critique of the closed and introspective approaches which both define and determine contemporary Australian defence and security policy They critically assess the basic assumptions of mainstream security thinking challenging existing orthodoxies and means of framing reality The authors call on policy makers academics and others working on defence and security issues to think more critically and theoretically to begin to ask some of the difficult questions that are being raised in other disciplines and finally to recognise and accept the contested and problematic nature of many of the concepts that they advance as if they were self evident Discourses of Danger is a timely and provocative book which complements and advances the work of the Secure Australia Project and other critics of the Australian security mainstream Back cover Digest of Insurance Cases John Allen Finch, 1914 The Miscellaneous Reports New York (State).
