Your Many Faces:

Your Many Faces Virginia Satir,2011-04-20 Each one of us has a medley of faces that composes our individual personality intelligence anger love jealousy helplessness courage and many more We re often quick to judge these characteristics as either positive or negative without recognizing that we need each of them in order to become fuller more balanced human beings Originally written in 1978 by renowned psychotherapist Virginia Satir the timeless classic Your Many Faces has been updated and reissued and is as relevant today as ever In a refreshingly candid style Satir takes us on a lively and insightful journey of self discovery and transformation We learn how to acknowledge understand and manage our many faces and in doing so open up a world of possibilities for ourselves This new edition also features a compelling foreword by Mary Ann Norfleet PhD which explores Satir s pioneering approaches to psychology and her enduring legacy in the field of family therapy

Summary of Virginia Satir's Your Many Faces Everest Media,2022-05-23T22:59:00Z Please note This is a companion version not the original book Sample Book Insights 1 Your imagination is the key to exploring your Theater of the Inside It is a private place deep within yourself where you live but few people ever visit It is your Theater of the Inside which plays constantly around the clock 2 The theater is a giant circular space We can see a domelike structure high above us The stage is directly beneath the dome The light grows gradually brighter as we enter and we begin to make out a series of doors all around the back of the stage that might be dressing rooms 3 I was drawn to the Universal Resource Wheel on the other side of the stage which held another key for hope It was unlighted and covered in dust and cobwebs as though it hadn t been used for a long time 4 The Universal Should List is made up of all the things we should do and it is usually the source of our guilt The more we look around the more we see which is natural The important thing is to get yourself to look
