Stitches in Time Arnold Cantwell Smith,1981 Canada's Department of External Affairs, Volume 2 John Hilliker,Donald Barry,1995-04-04 In 1946 with its own minister for the first time the Department of External Affairs embarked on a period of impressive growth and assumed responsibility for a broader range of foreign policy issues than ever before Under the expert guidance of Lester Pearson for a decade the department enjoyed popular and parliamentary consensus about international interests The election of the Diefenbaker government in 1957 deprived the department of Pearson s experienced ministerial direction and exposed it to new priorities and new ways of doing things At this time foreign policy consensus began to erode As well there was pressure to respond to the administrative revolution inaugurated by the Royal Commission on Government Organization the Glassco Commission appointed in 1960 After Pearson returned to office as prime minister in 1963 questioning by the public and also by the governing party and the cabinet became more fervent Coming of Age concludes in 1968 as indications of a challenge to the principles underlying Canadian foreign policy emerged from a new generation of ministers a challenge that would produce major changes after Pierre Trudeau became prime minister Canada's Department of External Affairs: Coming of age, 1946-1968 John Hilliker,Donald Barry,1990 The second volume of the official history of the Department of External Affairs Coming of Age covers a period of remarkable expansion and achievement in Canadian external relations Multilateral Negotiation and Mediation Arthur S. Lall,2014-05-17 Multilateral Negotiation and Mediation Instruments and Methods is a collection of papers that covers various areas of concerns in international mediation and negotiation The materials examine the several aspects negotiation and mediation The title first covers negotiations with security councils and then proceeds to tackling regional and inter regional negotiations Next the selection deals with the small state factor in dispute settlement The text also talks about disarmament negotiations and north south negotiations The last chapter covers international law and negotiation The book will be of great use diplomats government officials and political scientists Readers who have a keen interest on the mechanisms of diplomacy will also benefit from the text The Commonwealth, South Africa and Apartheid Stuart Mole,2023-05-31 This book explores the role of the modern Commonwealth in the international campaign against apartheid in South Africa Spanning the period of South Africa s apartheid state from its foundation in 1948 until its ending in April 1994 the author demonstrates that after the 1960 Sharpeville massacre and South Africa s subsequent exclusion from the Commonwealth the organisation was able to become both pathfinder and interlocutor on the road to South Africa s freedom As well as South Africa s ejection from the Commonwealth apartheid s increasing isolation was sustained by the Commonwealth s pioneering work in boycotting apartheid sport as well as campaigning to stop arms sales It also played an important role in internationalising economic and financial sanctions credited by some as the final nail in apartheid s coffin and was able to make an important and distinctive contribution to the transition to democracy At the same time critical debates within the Commonwealth about racial and political equality transformed the association from a docile post imperial organisation led by the UK and in its own interests to a modern multiracial North South forum for reconciling global difference and overcoming the legacies of colonialism This comprehensive and authoritative account of the Commonwealth s engagement with apartheid South Africa is intended for all those who study and research the modern Commonwealth its structure and influence and for those with a general interest in contemporary post war history

New Zealand in World Affairs: 1972-1990 Bruce Brown,1977 The eighteen years from 1972 to 1990 encompassed a near revolution in New Zealand s foreign relations In the early seventies New Zealand s approaches to Asia were piecemeal decolonisation in the Pacific had just begun apartheid remained firmly entrenched in South Africa and New Zealand s trade arrangement with Australia was distinguished as much by the bickering it produced as by its limited trading advantages By 1990 all of these things had changed all of them dramatically Back cover
