The Poetics of Sleep Simon Wortham, 2013-01-03 To what extent does sleep constitute a limit for the philosophical imagination? Why does it recur throughout philosophy? What is at issue in the repeated relegation of sleep to the realm of physiological study as in Kant, Freud and Bergson in favour of promoting the critical investigation of dreams and dreaming as a key indicator of modernity? Does philosophy entail a certain repression of the poetics of sleep in all its conceptual impossibility? Through a series of engagements with key thinkers in modern European philosophy, this book rearticulates a poetics of sleep at the heart of some of its seminal texts. From the problematic yet instructive status of a Kantian discourse on sleep to the conceptual contradictions inherent in psychoanalytic thought and the rich possibilities of thinking sleep in the writings of Bergson, Blanchot and Nancy, the book's aim is to dredge the remains of sleep, not to bring its secrets to the surface of waking life, but instead to draw closer to what falls under or away in thinking and writing sleep.

Immersive Storytelling and Spectatorship in Theatre, Museums, and Video Games Kelly I. Aliano, 2025-02-07 Immersive Storytelling and Spectatorship in Theatre, Museums and Video Games is the first volume to explore immersion as it is experienced in all three of these storytelling forms: the theatre, museums and historic sites, and video games. It theorizes what it means for a work to be called immersive and how immersion impacts audience experience in each of these modes. The presentation of story is deepened when it involves the spectator in an immersive way. Author Kelly I. Aliano concentrates on the central idea that the use of immersion in each medium allows the story being told to feel present for the spectator. It puts them at the center of the experience, making its events for and about them. Throughout the book, it discusses how immersion is employed to make narrative feel more resonant and relevant for the audience. Analyzing the impact of offering a first-hand experience of story events, this book looks at how immersive storytelling can highlight the ways in which we can interact with and shape our understandings of ourselves and our society, as well as our histories and identities. Ideal for students, scholars, and researchers of immersive theatre, spectatorship, museum studies and video game studies this is an innovative study into the power of immersive storytelling across three interactive mediums    Books for children Charles Lamb,1912    Five Books of the Lives, Heroic Deeds and Sayings of Gargantua and His Son Pantagruel François Rabelais,1904    Sir Francis Bacon's Cipher Story Orville Ward Owen,1895    The Best American Short Stories ... and the Yearbook of the American Short Story ,1918
