Deeds of Faith J. M. Neale, 2017-09-08. Trieste Publishing has a massive catalogue of classic book titles. Our aim is to provide readers with the highest quality reproductions of fiction and non-fiction literature that has stood the test of time. The many thousands of books in our collection have been sourced from libraries and private collections around the world. The titles that Trieste Publishing has chosen to be part of the collection have been scanned to simulate the original. Our readers see the books the same way that their first readers did decades or a hundred or more years ago. Books from that period are often spoiled by imperfections that did not exist in the original. Imperfections could be in the form of blurred text, photographs, or missing pages. It is highly unlikely that this would occur with one of our books. Our extensive quality control ensures that the readers of Trieste Publishing's books will be delighted with their purchase. Our staff has thoroughly reviewed every page of all the books in the collection, repairing or, if necessary, rejecting titles that are not of the highest quality. This process ensures that the reader of one of Trieste Publishing's titles receives a volume that faithfully reproduces the original and, to the maximum degree possible, gives them the experience of owning the original work. We pride ourselves on not only creating a pathway to an extensive reservoir of books of the finest quality but also providing value to every one of our readers. Generally, Trieste books are purchased singly on demand; however, they may also be purchased in bulk. Readers interested in bulk purchases are invited to contact us directly to enquire about our tailored bulk rates.

Grace Paley Jacqueline Taylor, 2014-02-19 Grace Paley is a writer's writer admired by both scholars and the reading public for her originality and unique voice In this first book length study of her work Jacqueline Taylor explores the source of Paley's originality locating it in the way Paley transforms language to create strongly woman centered stories Drawing on interviews with the author as well as the stories themselves Taylor emphasizes Paley's awareness that women's voices have been muted and their stories ignored or left untold in our culture's male oriented dominant discourse She watches Paley in the process of reshaping language at both the semantic and narrative levels to make it express women's perceptions and experiences In Paley s stories it becomes possible to ignore traditional heroic and dramatic themes and instead talk about women and children in such everyday settings as the playground the kitchen and the grocery store Some of the specific techniques Paley uses to accomplish this include identifying and repudiating sexist language in the dominant discourse and redefining ordinary words from the perspective of women At the narrative level Taylor reveals how she draws on women s oral traditions to tell open ended stories that resist rigid beginning middle and end structuring This transformed language enables Paley to construct a social world where woman centered meanings can flourish In her nontraditional stories no single narrator or version of events dominates Anyone can be a storyteller and no one has the last word

Marshall,1994-12-08 Mark s gospel has attracted an enormous amount of scholarly attention over recent decades The major themes of the gospel have been studied exhaustively and from a variety of critical perspectives But at least one important theme in Mark has been comparatively neglected in recent study the theme of faith This critically acclaimed book redresses such neglect through a thorough exegetical and literary study of all the references to faith in Mark s composition

Acts of Faith and Imagination Brent Little,Mark Bosco, SJ,2023-08-04 Acts of Faith and Imagination wagers that fiction written by Catholic authors assists readers to reflect critically on the question what is faith To speak of a person s faith life is to speak of change and development As a narrative form literature can illustrate the dynamics of faith which remains in flux over the course of one s life Because human beings must possess faith in something whether religious or not it inevitably has a narrative structure faith ebbs and flows flourishes and decays develops and stagnates Through an exploration of more than a dozen Catholic authors novels and short stories Brent Little argues that Catholic fiction encourages the reader to reflect upon their faith holistically that is the way faith informs one s affections and how a person conceives and interacts with the world as embodied beings Amidst the diverse stories of modern and contemporary fiction a consistent pattern emerges Catholic fiction portrays faith at its most fundamental often unconscious level as an act of the imagination Faith is the way one imagines themselves others and creation A person s primary faith conditions how they live in the world regardless of the level of conscious reflection and regardless of whether this is a religious faith Acts of Faith and Imagination investigates the creative depth and vitality of the Catholic literary imagination by bringing late modern Catholic authors into dialogue with more contemporary ones Readers will then consider well known works such as those by Graham Greene Flannery O Connor and Muriel Spark in the fresh light of contemporary stories by Toni Morrison Alice McDermott Uwem Akpan and several others Faith's father Frederic Morell Holmes,1880
