Scarborough, 2014-11-04 The subject of the supernatural in modern English fiction has been found difficult to deal with because of its wealth of material While there has been no previous book on the topic and none related to it save Mr C E Whitmore s work on The Supernatural in Tragedy the mass of fiction itself introducing ghostly or psychic motifs is simply enormous It is manifestly impossible to discuss or even to mention all of it Even in my bibliography which numbers over three thousand titles I have made no effort to list all the available examples of the type The bibliography which I at first intended to publish in connection with this volume is far too voluminous to be included here so will probably be brought out later by itself It would have been impossible for me to prosecute the research work or to write the book save for the assistance generously given by many persons I am indebted to the various officials of the libraries of Columbia University and of New York City particularly to Miss Isadore Mudge Reference Librarian of Columbia and to the authorities of the New York Society Library for permission to use their priceless out of print novels in the Kennedy Collection My interest in English fiction was increased during my attendance on some courses in the history of the English novel given by Dr A J Carlyle in Oxford University England several years ago I have received helpful bibliographical suggestions from Professor Blanche Colton Williams Dr Dorothy Brewster Professor Nelson Glenn McCrea Professor John Cunliffe and Dean Talcott Williams of Columbia and Professor G L Kittredge of Harvard Professors William P Trent George Philip Krapp and Ernest Hunter Wright very kindly read the book in manuscript and gave valuable advice concerning it Professor Wright going over the material with me in detail But my chief debt of gratitude is to Professor Ashley H Thorndike Head of the Department of English and Comparative Literature in Columbia whose stimulating criticism and kindly encouragement have made the book possible To all of these and others who have aided me I am deeply grateful and I only wish that the published volume were more worthy of their assistance SUPERNATURAL IN MODERN ENGLISH FICTION DOROTHY. The Supernatural in Romantic Fiction Edward Yardley,2015-06-02 Excerpt from The Supernatural in Romantic Fiction I have for several reasons abstained from mentioning the productions of living poets and poetical writers but have otherwise attempted to make my work as complete as it was in my power to make it I have used the word romantic in opposition to classical and possibly have made the word unduly comprehensive by treating of all supernatural fiction except that of ancient Greece and Rome and even that I have occasionally noticed for the sake of comparison About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
