Alsen analyzes representative novels by Saul Bellow J D Salinger Norman Mailer Flannery O Connor John Updike Kurt Vonnegut Philip Roth Thomas Pynchon Toni Morrison the later John Barth Alice Walker William Kennedy and Paul Auster Professor Alsen demonstrates that the traits which distinguish the fiction of the romantic postmodernists from the fiction of their disunitive and nihilist colleagues include a vision of life that is a form of philosophical idealism an organic view of art modes of storytelling that are reminiscent of the nineteenth century romance and such themes as the nature of sin or evil the negative effects of technology on the soul and the quest for transcendence

The Erotics of Talk Carla Kaplan,1996-12-12
Is feminism in crisis With many feminists now questioning identification and focusing on differences between women what is the fate of feminist criticism s traditional imperative to rescue women s stories and make their voices heard In this provocative rereading of the classic texts of the feminist literary canon Carla Kaplan takes a hard look at the legacy of feminist criticism and argues that important features of feminism s own canon have been overlooked in the rush to rescue and identify texts African American women s texts she demonstrates often dramatize their distrust of their readers their lack of faith in the cultural conversation through strategies of self silencing and self talk At the same time she argues the homoerotics of women s writing has too often gone unremarked Not only does longing for an ideal listener draw women s texts into a romance with the reader but there is an erotic excess which is part of feminist critical recuperation itself Drawing on a wide range of resources from sociolinguistics and anthropology to literary theory Kaplan s highly readable study proposes a new model for understanding and representing talk She supplies fresh readings of such feminist classics as Jane Eyre The Yellow Wallpaper Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl Their Eyes Were Watching God and The Color Purple revealing how their erotics of talk works as a rich political allegory and form of social critique

The Development of Celie in 'The Color Purple' Nadja Grebe,2010-05-17 Seminar paper from the year 2009 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1 5 Ernst Moritz Arndt University of Greifswald Institut f r Fremdsprachliche Philologien course Introduction to Postcolonialism language

English abstract In order to meet these ambitions I will present several general aspects on The Color Purple including setting and formal features in the following chapter The third and fourth chapters serve as the main part of my paper since they deal with characteristics and the development of Celie in detail Consequently I will seek to uncover reasons for her lack of self esteem in chapter 3 by taking a closer look to her childhood first Moreover I will concentrate on one main problem Celie has to face during her life sexual discrimination In this connection I find it also most important to examine key figures and scenes that have turned her into the woman she is However as the story continues it becomes also obvious that Celie undergoes changes Thus Chapter 4 will focus on her identification process and the respective result While the preceding chapter demonstrates the establishment of Celie s personality the attention will now be turned to decisive factors that generate and support her search of identity Hence especially the relationship between Celie and Shug the initiator of her transformation and marginally the influence of her newly created social network will be taken into account Lastly I will examine the final stage and result of her development the evolution of a dignified self confident woman Eventually Chapter 5 will provide a brief summary of the discussion Furthermore it will evaluate Celie s process in consideration of the given task and highlight the importance and universal validity of her development The literature I have concentrated on is in large part taken from journals that hold a broad range of essays on The Color Purple in general and on the character Celie in particular However first and foremost the research refers to Alice Walker s novel itself As no single comprehensive analysis on The Color Purple exists I will not focus on one academic only but instead take different perspectives into account However I would like to point out the essays of Daniel Ross Charles Proudfit Emma Waters Dawson and Trudier Harris as they were rather useful for my discussion
