Universal Exposition Paris, 1891 The Fragment William Tronzo, 2009 The universe may well have begun with an immense act of fragmentation the big bang that sent particles flying in all directions to perform spectacular acts of creation and destruction The fragment volatile and unpredictable is not simply the static part of a once whole thing but itself something in motion Drawing upon art history archaeology literature numismatics philosophy and film this book explores the significance of the fragment and addresses the powerful drives that have impelled it into the cultural mainstream Book jacket

Explanation of the psalms Flavius Magnus Aurelius Cassiodorus, 1991 Soul, World, and Idea Daniel Sherman, 2013-10-03 In its examination of two of Plato's key works Soul World and Idea An Interpretation of Plato's Republic and Phaedo reveals the key role that that images and our capacity for image making play in the relationship among soul world and idea This book begins and ends with a reading of the Republic Daniel Sherman turns midway to the Phaedo to further analyze the nature of the soul and its relation to the nature of the Ideas then returns to apply the conclusions to the rest of the Republic Sherman's focus is on the ontological and epistemological argument including attention to the dramatic detail He argues that the ontology of the Ideas in the Republic and the Phaedo is inseparable from the ontology of human being that is from the structure and life of the soul On this interpretation the Ideas are seen as indeed objective but as in a sense also a product of a permanent dialectical relationship The Ideas though something more than concepts do not have any real independent existence outside of this human dialectical triad of world soul and Idea The stability of the Ideas need not be grounded in a static otherworldliness and the condition of meaning is not temporally prior to human existence in general The result is a new interpretation concerning the realm of the Ideas the immortality of the soul and the lived in world of their interaction in the production of interpretive images Sherman argues that the platonic soul is immortal and the Ideas eternal wholly and solely in human dialogical activity the rest is muthologia and that the world of our experience is a product of an ongoing act of interpretation or dianoetic dialogue This reinterpretation the platonic Ideas will be especially interesting to students and scholars of classics ancient philosophy and continental philosophy
