The Circus In The Mist:

The Circus in the Mist, 1996 Although a mist surrounds the town everything is bright and gay beneath the circus tent

Binding Space: The Book as Spatial Practice Marian Macken, 2018-04-17 Books orient intrigue provoke and direct the reader while editing interpreting encapsulating constructing and revealing architectural representation Binding Space The Book as Spatial Practice explores the role of the book form within the realm of architectural representation It proposes the book itself as another three dimensional complementary architectural representation with a generational and propositional role within the design process Artists books in particular that is a book made as an original work of art with an artist designer or architect as author have certain qualities and characteristics quite different from the conventional presentation and documentation of architecture Paginal sequentiality the structure and objecthood of the book and the act of reading create possibilities for the book as a site for architectural imagining and discourse In this way the form of the book affects how the architectural work is conceived constructed and read In five main sections Binding Space examines the relationships between the drawing the building and the book It proposes thinking through the book as a form of spatial practice one in which the book is cast as object outcome process and tool Through the book we read spatial practice anew

Maps and Mapping in Children's Literature Nina Goga, Bettina Kümmerling-Meibauer, 2017-08-15 Maps and Mapping in Children's Literature is the first comprehensive study that investigates the representation of maps in children's books as well as the impact of mapping on the depiction of landscapes seascapes and cityscapes in children's literature The chapters in this volume pursue a comparative approach as they represent a wide spectrum of diverse genres and national children's literatures by examining a wealth of children's books from Canada Denmark Germany Italy Norway Russia the United Kingdom and the USA The theoretical and methodological approaches range from literary studies developmental psychology maps and geography literacy ecocriticism historical contextualization with both new historicist and political historical leanings and intermediality to materialist cartographies cultural studies island studies and genre studies By this this volume aims at embedding children's literature in a broader field of literary and cultural studies thus situating children's literature research within a general context of literary theory
