The Enchantment of Modern Life Jane Bennett, 2016-11-22 It is a commonplace that the modern world cannot be experienced as enchanted that the very concept of enchantment belongs to past ages of superstition Jane Bennett challenges that view She seeks to rehabilitate enchantment showing not only how it is still possible to experience genuine wonder but how such experience is crucial to motivating ethical behavior A creative blend of political theory philosophy and literary studies this book is a powerful and innovative contribution to an emerging interdisciplinary conversation about the deep connections between ethics aesthetics and politics As Bennett describes it enchantment is a sense of openness to the unusual the captivating and the disturbing in everyday life She guides us through a wide and often surprising range of sources of enchantment showing that we can still find enchantment in nature for example but also in such unexpected places as modern technology advertising and even bureaucracy She then explains how everyday moments of enchantment can be cultivated to build an ethics of generosity stimulating the emotional energy and honing the perceptual refinement necessary to follow moral codes Throughout Bennett draws on thinkers and writers as diverse as Kant Schiller Thoreau Kafka Marx Weber Adorno and Deleuze With its range and daring The Enchantment of Modern Life is a provocative challenge to the centuries old narrative of disenchantment one that presents a new alter tale that discloses our profound attachment to the human and nonhuman world

The Enchantment of Western Herbal Medicine Guy Waddell, 2020-01-30 Through interviews with British herbalists the importance of hidden experiences of meetings with plants is explored alongside how such enchantment has influenced the narrative of their lives Some herbalists have visible entryways into studying such as personal experience of taking herbal medicine a search for a new career or a love of nature Other entryways are more hidden with many noting crossings and callings with plants at a young age This sensual ability of herbs raises questions about the agency of living plants and of herbal medicines and about how the relationship between herbalists and plants may be reconceived Meetings with plants and herbal medicines allow herbalists to draw easily from a diverse range of influences that others may see as incommensurable This fascinating original and challenging book convincingly explores modern day herbalists understanding of their place in the complementary health world against the backdrop of encroaching professionalisation legitimacy and scientism In his case study interviews with herbalists Guy Waddell draws our attention to the enchanting power of plants and their agentic qualities In his quest for greater understanding of their sensual power the author rejects the conventional modernity rationalisation thesis seen both in the sensual affective energy that herbalists draw upon and in the ontological implications of human nonhuman crossings This book is an excellent contribution to our understanding of Western herbal medicine and contemporary thought Dr Stuart McClean PhD Associate Professor in Public Health Health and Wellbeing University of the West of England In the field of
