Athletes, Sexual Assault, and Trials by Media Deb Waterhouse-Watson, 2013-02-11 Since footballer sexual assault became top news in 2004 six years after the first case was reported much has been written in the news media about individual cases footballers and women who have sex with them Deb Waterhouse Watson reveals how media representations of recent sexual assault cases involving Australian footballers amount to trials by media trials that result in acquittal The stories told about footballers and women in the news media evoke stereotypes such as the gold digger woman scorned and the predatory woman which cast doubt on the alleged victims claims and suggest that they are lying Waterhouse Watson calls this a narrative immunity for footballers against allegations of sexual assault This book details how popular conceptions of masculinity and femininity inform the way footballers bodies team bonding women sex and alcohol are portrayed in the media and connects stories relating to the cases with sports reporting generally Uncovering similar patterns of narrative grammar and discourse across these distinct yet related fields Waterhouse Watson shows how these discourses are naturalised with reports on the cases intertwining with broader discourses of football reporting to provide immunity Despite the prevalence of stories that discredit the alleged victims Waterhouse Watson also examines attempts to counter these pervasive rape myths articulating successful strategies and elucidating the limitations built into journalistic practices and language itself

The Essential Mystery Lists Roger M Sobin, 2011-09-30 For the first time in one place Roger M Sobin has compiled a list of nominees and award winners of virtually every mystery award ever presented He has also included many of the best of lists by more than fifty of the most important contributors to the genre Mr Sobin spent more than two decades gathering the data and lists in this volume much of that time he used to recheck the accuracy of the material he had collected Several of the best of lists appear here for the first time in book form Several others have been unavailable for a number of years Of special note are Anthony Boucher s Best Picks for the Year Boucher one of the major mystery reviewers of all time reviewed for The San Francisco Chronicle Ellery Queen Mystery Magazine and The New York Times From these resources Mr Sobin created Boucher s Best and Important Lists to Consider lists that provide insight into important writing in the field from 1942 through Boucher s death in 1968 This is a great resource for all mystery readers and collectors Winner of the 2008 Macavity Awards for Best Mystery Nonfiction

Pilgrim JFK Miller, 2022-08-01 To walk the Kokoda Track is to undertake two journeys The first starts at Owers Corner and undulates through 96 kilometres of primary jungle over the Owen Stanley Range until you reach the village of Kokoda on the other side This journey is ordinarily taken in the company of others and with a backpack which you may hire a porter to carry for you if you wish The second journey began the moment you were born It brings to the track baggage of a different kind This you must carry yourself and the journey you must make alone So begins JFK Miller s account of his ten day jungle trek along Papua New Guinea s Kokoda Track The journey was effectively two journeys The external journey was the physical ten day trek over the track The internal journey was the emotional aspect including what Miller brought to the experience the mental illness of depression and what he gained from it
