The Last Duty:

The Last Duty Isidore Okpewho, 1976      The War Hero's Last Duty Frank Myers, Zhao Xiangdong transmigrated into a parallel world just as spiritual energy began to revive Monsters and demons descended upon the earth bringing chaos and despair to humankind To protect his homeland he fought on the battlefield for more than sixty years quelled countless wars and finally retired to his village At nearly a hundred years old he suddenly heard shocking news a tragic accident had occurred in his village The young heir of the Liu Corporation attempted to assault a village girl only to be killed in self defense The incident caused an uproar Facing pressure from the powerful Liu family whose influence reached both the underworld and the government the local police were at a loss Just as the police chief ordered a full investigation an old man wearing a faded bloodstained military uniform and a chest full of medals walked into the station It was this old man who killed him Zhao Xiangdong said calmly I've come to turn myself in The entire station fell silent Not a single officer dared to touch him Moments later armored vehicles with military plates roared into the area helicopters circled above and thousands of soldiers surrounded the police station Then a car door opened the Commander in Chief himself stepped out walked straight to the old soldier and saluted General he said with deep respect we've been looking for you for a long time
