The Final Film of Laurel and Hardy Norbert Aping, 2014-01-10 The remarkable story behind the planning development and marketing of Laurel and Hardy's ill received final film Atoll K has been little explored Details on the script development cast crew locations and even basic information on running times and release dates have been sketchy at best since the film's 1951 release This work reconstructs the circumstances surrounding this unusual international co production Atoll K was a French Italian film with English speaking stars Through lost documents detailing the film's production and funding previously unreleased behind the scenes photos and a rare interview with French movie star Suzy Delair the author explores the continuous changes to the film's script during its chaotic production and the final marketing of the film's many different versions Atoll K was also released as Robinson Crusoe Land in the United Kingdom and as Utopia in the United States Several appendices detail alternative sequences and cut scenes in various versions of the film and include French box office reports from 1951 to 1952 as well as a complete filmography

Transactions with the World Adam O'Brien, 2016-02-01 In their bold experimentation and bracing engagement with culture and politics the New Hollywood films of the late 1960s and early 1970s are justly celebrated contributions to American cinematic history Relatively unexplored however has been the profound environmental sensibility that characterized movies such as The Wild Bunch Chinatown and Nashville This brisk and engaging study explores how many hallmarks of New Hollywood filmmaking such as the increased reliance on location shooting and the rejection of American self mythologizing made the era such a vividly grounded cinematic moment Synthesizing a range of narrative aesthetic and ecocritical theories it offers a genuinely fresh perspective on one of the most studied periods in film history

From the Arthouse to the Grindhouse John Cline, Robert G. Weiner, 2010-07-17 While there are numerous books on art and exploitation cinema very few attempt to examine both Covering the first 100 years of cinematic transgressions From the Arthouse to the Grindhouse is a collection of numerous essays representing key contributions to overlooked forgotten or under analyzed parts of film history From cult favorites like Arch Hall Jr to revered but under documented marquee names like Lon Chaney filmmakers both major and minor are covered here Starting with a section that pairs exploitation pioneers like Dwain Esper alongside cutting edge auteurs like Erich Von Stroheim the volume documents the bleeding edge of the high low cultural divide Other essays examine the sexual melodramas of Weimer German cinema explore the concept of Borat as a model for the new standardized cult film and discuss the films of directors Tod Browning Pier Pasolini and Peter Watkins This volume also contains a section devoted to the idea of reality inside and outside the documentary sphere emphasizing audiences desire to believe that this is really happening whether they re horrified or titillated Addressing many aspects of transgression in cinema these essays suggest that the distance between the venues and the audiences may not be quite as wide as viewers might imagine Film Review ,2002 Amateur Movie Makers ,1930
