They Shoot They Score Lives Lessons On Ice:

They Shoot! They Score! Kelly MacDonald, 2005 A flashy young hockey player learns a lesson about what it takes to succeed at hockey and at life This story has a great moral for parents to share with their children and is told in an entertaining Seuss like rhyme that all kids will love Colourful animated pictures and text will entertain young hockey hopefuls everywhere Our reader group consists of over a million children in Canada and the U S registered in minor hockey and large numbers of children who watch hockey collect cards and play hockey on video and on the driveway With all the negative press surrounding the game of hockey this first book in a series of 3 presents the positive lessons that can be taken from the game and applied to real life
