

A dirt path leads through a field of tall grass and a fence, with a sunset sky in the background. The path is in the center, flanked by green grass and a fence made of wooden posts and wire. The sky is a mix of orange, yellow, and grey, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The overall mood is contemplative and serene.

To place your trust in visible things is to live in despair.

affect the physical body in a healing strengthening and regulating way through certain rhythmical movements of the etheric body which after all was the centre of all that was rhythmical as well as of health and illness Dr Steiner not only enthusiastically affirmed this possibility but spontaneously declared himself ready to give the necessary directions which I could then work out with my mother s help Lory Maier Smits Alongside original material by Rudolf and Marie Steiner this volume features unique first hand accounts of the birth of the art of eurythmy by a number of its early students and practitioners The practical and artistic stages of its development are chronicled in detail alongside reports from the first public performance onwards Rudolf Steiner offers inspiration to the original eurythmists to make their own discoveries to perceive and fashion in movement their creative inner voice The artistic principles are established for later development and elaboration to reveal and foster human creativity in many poetic and musical contexts Through the text links between eurythmy and temple dances that accompanied ancient initiations gradually emerge The impulse to dance is rediscovered as inherent in the lost Word or the primordial root language still available in genetic etymology the sounds of speech used in all
