Richard A. Jensen

Thinking Stories I:

Willy the Wisher and Other Thinking Stories Carl Bereiter, Valerie Anderson, 1983 Willy the Wisher and Other Thinking Stories teaches logical thinking As each story progresses the child is asked questions that prompt him or her to determine what is wrong with what a character has done or said to anticipate what is going to happen as a result or to think of other possibilities that the character has not considered

Thinking in Story Richard A. Jensen, 1993 We are living on the boundary between the print and electronic era Richard A Jensen says that as we move into the electronic world we must seriously rethink most of what we do This book calls us to reinvestigate preaching in our time Well grounded in an understanding of communication cultures this book is a rare gift In theory and practice Jensen helps preachers rethink what they are doing and offers a strategy for effective communication in an electronic era Richard L Thulin Th D Dean and Professor of Preaching Lutheran Theological Seminary at Gettysburg Gettysburg Pennsylvania Jensen s thinking in story thesis provides a scholarly logical rationale for why it both feels and is so right Jensen applies his thinking in story concept to biblical material as well His approach helps us to see individual texts stories in light of the larger biblical story which opens up many new avenues for preaching Thomas Rogers Assistant Professor of Homiletics Pacific Lutheran Theological Seminary Berkeley California These are solid prescriptions for our media saturated times calling for a shift in our very approach to proclamation Jensen is quite right in this goal that preaching needs to compel participation in the narratives of scripture not merely an understanding of them James Nieman Assistant Professor of Homiletics Wartburg Theological Seminary Dubuque Iowa Richard A Jensen is a trained systematic theologian having taught these subjects at Wartburg Theological Seminary Dubuque Iowa from 1971 1981 He is author of Telling The Story Since 1982 he has served in the communication department of the American Lutheran Church and the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America He produces the weekly radio program Lutheran Vespers and several series of television programs

Thinking Stories Jackie Scott, 1994 Combines literature and thinking in bilingual stories supplemented by problem solving activities How to Write A Short Story (And Think About It) Robert Graham, 2017-09-16 Short story publishing is flourishing in the 21st century and is no longer seen as a poor relation of the novel But what is a short story And how do you write one Robert Graham takes you through everything you need to know from how a writer works to crafting and editing your own fiction This heavily revised edition features new chapters by contemporary fiction writers Stressing the importance of reading broadly and deeply the book includes a wide range of prompts and writing exercises It teaches you how to read as a writer and write like somebody who has read You will learn the elements of craft you need to produce short stories and one of the key writer s disciplines reflecting on your own work Whether you are a student or an experienced author this book will teach you how to write short stories and reflect on the creative processes involved The book features chapters from writer teachers James Friel Rodge Glass Ursula Hurley Heather Leach Helen Newall Jenny Newman James Rice and Tom Vowler

The Thinking Books Susan Swan, Richard Thomas

White,1994 Willy the Wisher and Other Thinking Stories Carl Bereiter,Valerie Anderson,1970 Willy the Wisher and Other Thinking Stories teaches logical thinking As each story progresses the child is asked questions that prompt him or her to determine what is wrong with what a character has done or said to anticipate what is going to happen as a result or to think of other possibilities that the character has not considered Each character has some outstanding peculiarity in his or her thinking This material is designed to teach students to recognize these peculiarities and to avoid similar errors This 205 page book contains 50 short stories and many full length color illustrations The specified instructional level is kindergarten The material seems appropriate for use with preschool students and the primary grades Teacher direction is necessary and the time required for each story varies from 5 to 30 minutes This material is part of the Thinkingg Skills Program and is correlated with The Thinking Book which can be purchased separately MJJ 11 75 The Best Short Stories of ... and the Yearbook of the American Short Story ,1922 The Platoon School - National Association for the Study of the Platoon Or Work-study-play School Organization Julia A. Spooner,Roscoe David Case,1927 What's Going On? Lawrence Grossberg,2025-10-24 Exploring the backstory of contemporary political polarization What s Going On recognizes that simple stories of blame and uncontested stories of polarization prove themselves to be bad stories that produce bad politics This book argues that stories have increasingly become matters of affect rather than meaning instead of asking what stories mean we are likely to ask how they make people feel These stories are cultural tendencies that define the possibilities and limits of political action and behavior and the book tells its own story about how the stories of America s crises have defined our political culture as they struggle over questions of ideology identity and social belonging It lays out a theoretical position that recognizes the need for complicated stories and rigorous thought pointing a way forward out of the chaos seeking to repair the world and offer better stories and more humane political possibilities This work is a vital resource for students and instructors in sociology political science cultural studies media studies and communication in such courses as contemporary social theory contemporary political theory media politics and society and social movements and resistance The book will be an important guide for activists organizers and community field workers and for anyone else who wishes to have a better understanding of the contemporary political moment and how to mobilize toward building a better future
