Lost Mines and Treasure Tales of Southern California Ivan Herring,2019-03-21 This book contains over 90 stories of Lost Mines and Treasurers in Southern California composed of the Counties of Imperial Kern Los Angeles Orange Riverside San Bernardino San Diego San Luis Obispo Santa Barbara and Ventura Many of the stories concern treasurers buried by the Priests the Spanish Indians bandits and Colonial settlers during the many incidents and wars that rocked the area in the 16th through the early 20th centuries I found the data for this book while doing research on old mines for my series of books Mines of the American West The Lost Mines and Treasurers were identified from articles in early American newspapers and other sources considered reliable Where possible for those lost treasures still to be found I have tried to tie them to modern mines or areas and include some background data on such areas In doing this some of them seemed to fall short in the area of fact and logic which I may point out The reader should understand that this is a collection of data from old and new publications and not a focused specifically on the effort to find the specific properties although some research especially from a logic standpoint has been done If the reader can glean critical information from these original articles and the limited research that allows or helps him or her to locate a lost mine or lost treasure I wish him or her well and leave it to them to reap the rewards The print version of this book has been produced in the 8 1/2 X 11 format to keep the price low If done in 6 X 9 or smaller the book would be 2 or 3 times as many pages in length and would cost substantially more to increased on demand print costs These seem to be heavily influenced by the total number of pages While this may be one of the seeming drawbacks to on demand printing the benefit of on demand printing is that specialty books such as this are now practical to publish where the target market may be relatively small and minimal returns to the author are acceptable Due to the number of stories I found for the State of California the stories have been split into three books Southern California Central California and Northern California This was done to keep the cost of the book under 10 00 and to keep the book small enough so that if it were produced in a smaller page size such as the more common 6 X 9 or smaller or as a pocket book the number of pages would still be manageable It should also be noted that I may periodically update and revise the electronic version before creating a Fourth Edition The guidelines for submissions for the electronic versions allow updates without producing a full new edition while the print on demand or hard copy paperback version does not and require that a full new edition to be developed to incorporate any changes As such the two books may not be exactly the same as it is likely the electronic version will be updated more frequently than the paperback
