Krishna Sobti's Views on Literature and the Poetics of Writing Rosine-Alice Vuille, 2022-10-03 How does a writer discuss her creative process and her views on a writer's role in society How do her comments on writing relate to her works The Hindi writer Krishna Sobti 1925-2019 is known primarily as a novelist However she also extensively wrote about her views on the creative process the figure of the writer historical writing and the position of writers within the public sphere This study is the first to examine in detail the relationship between Sobti's views on poetics as exposed in her non-fictional texts and her own literary practice The writer's self-representation is analysed through her use of metaphors to explain her creative process Sobti's construction of the figure of the writer is then put in parallel with her idiosyncratic use of language as a representation of the heterogeneous voices of her characters and with her conception of literature as a space where time and memory can be held At the same time by delving into Sobti s position in the debate around women s writing especially through the creation of a male double the failed writer Hashmat and into her views on literature and politics this book also reflects on the literary debates of the post Independence Hindi literary sphere The Psychology of Creative Writing Scott Barry Kaufman,James C. Kaufman,2009-06-29 The Psychology of Creative Writing takes a scholarly psychological look at multiple aspects of creative writing including the creative writer as a person the text itself the creative process the writer s development the link between creative writing and mental illness the personality traits of comedy and screen writers and how to teach creative writing This book will appeal to psychologists interested in creativity writers who want to understand more about the magic behind their talents and educated laypeople who enjoy reading writing or both From scholars to bloggers to artists The Psychology of Creative Writing has something for everyone Spectrums and Spaces of Writing ,2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2013 The chapters in this book provide an overview of both global and interdisciplinary perspectives on Writing In an era when technology in general and social media in particular has appeared to overtaken academic discussion in regard to how we communicate the thoughts research and praxes in this volume reveal that while the concept of writing has changed dramatically in the past decades the flow of words on a page or computer screen as a large flow of text still remains one of the key forms in which humans are able to crystallize thoughts Each chapter reveals a particular facet of this process revealing that it is only through the crafting process of producing words through the conduit of head to heart to hand that we can create and understand the external composite of internal creativity and reveal the power of human reflection The clearly demonstrates that writing is encapsulated humanity
