Writing Day in and Day Out Andi Cumbo-Floyd,2015-08-15 It s not an easy thing to take time to write The world says that writing doesn t matter much Our families and jobs need us We have to make money The ugly voices in our head tell us we re not good enough There are a ton of reasons why we choose to not write and yet if we are writers we must find a way to the page Over and over again Often one of the hardest things for writers is allowing ourselves the time and space to write when so many other obligations fill our time Writing Day in and Day Out is a book for writers who would like to find that time and space and build a practice of writing in their daily lives In this intimate volume Cumbo Floyd tells about her own writing practice shares suggestions but never rules for how you might find a way to more words in your daily life and offers encouragement for the days when writing seems to be too far away or too painful
