Writing The New Journalism:

The New New Journalism Robert Boynton, 2007-12-18 Forty years after Tom Wolfe Hunter S Thompson and Gay Talese launched the New Journalism movement Robert S Boynton sits down with nineteen practitioners of what he calls the New New Journalism to discuss their methods writings and careers The New New Journalists are first and foremost brilliant reporters who immerse themselves completely in their subjects Jon Krakauer accompanies a mountaineering expedition to Everest Ted Conover works for nearly a year as a prison guard Susan Orlean follows orchid fanciers to reveal an obsessive subculture few knew existed Adrian Nicole LeBlanc spends nearly a decade reporting on a family in the South Bronx And like their muckraking early twentieth century precursors they are drawn to the most pressing issues of the day Alex Kotlowitz Leon Dash and William Finnegan to race and class Ron Rosenbaum to the problem of evil Michael Lewis to boom and bust economies Richard Ben Cramer to the nitty gritty of politics How do they do it In these interviews they reveal the techniques and inspirations behind their acclaimed works from their felt tip pens tape recorders long car rides and assumed identities to their intimate understanding of the way a truly great story unfolds Interviews with Gay Talese Jane Kramer Calvin Trillin Richard Ben Cramer Ted Conover Alex Kotlowitz Richard Preston William Langewiesche Eric Schlosser Leon Dash William Finnegan Jonathan Harr Jon Krakauer Adrian Nicole LeBlanc Michael Lewis Susan Orlean Ron Rosenbaum Lawrence Weschler Lawrence Wright

Novaja žurnalistika i antologija novoj žurnalistiki Tom Wolfe, 1990 The hell with it let chaos reign louder music more wine All the old traditions are exhausted and no new one is yet established All bets are off The odds are cancelled It s anybody s ballgame Tom Wolfe introduces and exults in his generation s journalistic talent Truman Capote inside the mind of a psychotic killer Hunter S Thompson skunk drunk at the Kentucky Derby Michael Herr dispatching reality from the Vietnam killing fields Rex Reed giving the star treatment to the ageing Ava Gardner As well as Norman Mailer Joe Eszterhas Terry Southern Nicholas Tomalin George Plimpton James Mills Gay Talese Joan Didion and many other legends of tape and typewriter telling it like it is from Warhol s Factory to the White House lawn from the saddle of a Harley to the toughest football team in the US

Writing New Media Anne Wysocki, 2007-03-01 As new media mature the changes they bring to writing in college are many and suggest implications not only for the tools of writing but also for the contexts personae and conventions of writing An especially visible change has been the increase of visual elements from typographic flexibility to the easy use and manipulation of color and images Another would be in the scenes of writing web sites presentation slides email online conferencing and coursework even help files all reflect non traditional venues that new media have brought to writing By one logic we must reconsider traditional views even of what counts as writing a database for example could be a new form of written work The authors of Writing New Media bring these ideas and the changes they imply for writing instruction to the audience of rhetoric composition scholars Their aim is to expand the college writing teacher s understanding of new media and to help teachers prepare students to write effectively with new media beyond the classroom Each chapter in the volume includes a lengthy discussion of rhetorical and technological background and then follows with classroom tested assignments from the authors own teaching Nelson Algren Richard F. Bales,2024-11-07 This book addresses critical gaps in existing biographies of Nelson Algren providing new perspectives on his writing style literary contributions professional colleagues and personal life especially his relationship with Simone de Beauvoir Although Beauvoir maintained a simultaneous relationship with philosopher Jean Paul Sartre the correspondence exchanged between Beauvoir Algren and Sartre as this book discusses sheds new light on her transatlantic love affair with Algren Moreover this work challenges the assertion that Algren s writing aligns seamlessly with the New Journalism style popularized by Tom Wolfe It investigates how Algren s literary legacy might have diverged had he embraced more of the principles associated with New Journalism New Media Literacies and Participatory Popular Culture Across Borders Bronwyn Williams,Amy A. Zenger,2012 How do students online literacy practices intersect with online popular culture In this book scholars from a range of countries including Australia Lebanon Nepal Qatar South Africa Turkey and the United States illustrate and analyze how literacy practices that are mediated through and influenced by popular culture create both opportunities and tensions for secondary and university students The authors examine issues of theory identity and pedagogy as they address participatory popular culture sites such as fan forums video blogs social networking sites anime memes and comics and graphic novels Uniquely bringing together scholarship about online literacy practices and the growing body of work on participatory popular culture New Media Literacies and Participatory Popular Culture across Borders makes distinctive contributions to an emerging field of study pushing forward scholarship about literacy and identity in cross cultural situations and advancing important conversations about issues of global flows and local responses to popular culture The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson,I. R. Willison,1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries Twentieth-Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context Linda De Roche,2021-06-04 This four volume reference work surveys American literature from the early 20th century to the present day featuring a diverse range of American works and authors and an expansive selection of primary source materials Bringing useful and engaging material into the classroom this four volume set covers more than a century of American literary history from 1900 to the present Twentieth Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context profiles authors and their works and provides overviews of literary movements and genres through which readers will understand the historical cultural and political contexts that have shaped American writing Twentieth Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context provides wide coverage of authors works genres and movements that are emblematic of the diversity of modern America Not only are major literary movements represented such as the Beats but this work also highlights the emergence and development of modern Native American literature African American literature and other representative groups that showcase the diversity of American letters A rich selection of primary documents and background material provides indispensable information for student research
