Back cover English Journal, 2004 Current Index to Journals in Education, 1994 The CATESOL Journal, 2006 Harcourt Brace Guide to Teaching First Year Composition Kathryn Rosser Raign, 1997-12 This text is designed for teachers of writing at all levels but particularly for those teaching for the first time and for teachers responsible for mentoring and guiding first time teachers CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric 1992 Gail E. Hawisher, Cynthia L. Selfe, 1994-04 The CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric published for the Conference on College Composition and Communication offers teachers and researchers an annual classified listing of scholarship on written English and its teaching at the college level The 1992 volume lists and annotates 1 656 articles books dissertations and papers that with few exceptions were published during the 1992 calendar year A group of 149 contributing bibliographers prepared the citations and annotations for the entries appearing in this volume The CCCC Bibliography includes an index of authors and editors a subject index and entries cross referenced according to subject matter Considerably more comprehensive than other bibliographies in composition studies the CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric draws upon a large group of experts in the field to aid teachers and researchers in sorting through a vast body of interdisciplinary material making their work easier and more effective Further the range of texts represented in the CCCC Bibliography has been expanded to include a greater number of entries dealing with feminism critical theory technology and cultural studies as they relate to composition and rhetoric Each document is cited and annotated only once under one of the five major sections of the CCCC Bibliography Each entry however receives an entry number so that cross references to other sections are possible This feature is especially useful because much scholarship in composition and rhetoric is interdisciplinary in nature Cross references appear as a listing of entry numbers preceded by See also found at the ends of subsections Entries appear under five major categories bibliographies and checklists theory and research teacher education administration and social roles curriculum and testing measurement and evaluation Although the CCCC Bibliography excludes master s theses textbooks computer software and book reviews from its coverage it furnishes citations to review essays articles appearing in some 228 journals scholarly monographs and essay collections dissertations abstracted in Dissertation Abstracts International and selected documents and conference materials available through ERIC

Resources in Education, 1997 Handbook of Research on Improving Student Achievement Gordon Cawelti, 2004 This updated report is an essential tool for school leaders and practitioners alike and is the single most authoritative source for effective K 12 teaching and learning practices across the content areas This one volume brings together in readable concise language the authoritative research on effective classroom practices in all major disciplines currently taught in elementary and secondary schools the arts foreign language health language arts physical education mathematics social studies and science as well as generic practices that apply across all disciplines This third edition includes over 100 research based classroom strategies and features a new chapter that synthesises the research on high performing school districts and discusses ways school districts can support instructional improvement Teaching Children and Adolescents with Special Needs Judy L. Olson, Jennifer M. Platt, 2000 For courses on how to teach students with mild disabilities The updated edition of this text is structured and organized to include recommendations for teacher effectiveness to fully prepare special education students for their role in the 21st century The text uses a personal tone and interactive approach to present practical research based teaching strategies that relate to everyday occurrences in the schools and describes motivating experience based activities along with detailed lesson plans throughout the text

Student-centered Language Arts, K-12 James Moffett, Betty Jane Wagner, 1992 This is the fourth edition of James Moffett's seminal text first published in 1968 which set forth the rationale and practices for the kind of individualized interactive integrative language learning environment that only today is coming into its own It proposed whole language collaborative learning active learning writing workshops the process approach student empowerment portfolio assessment and the substitution of children's literature for basal readers many years before these cornerstones of enlightened English language arts teaching became fashionable The book is the centerpiece of life work devoted to curricular innovation and constitutes a truly original approach to the nature of discourse It is cross referenced to an equally original collection of anthologies that illustrate with both professional and student writing the reading writing talking dramatizing repertoires it stakes out and to Moffett's other works that build on and extend this one From the second edition on the book has profited from the input of Betty Jane Wagner a master teacher of teachers Student centered Language Art K 12 is arguably the most comprehensive practically detailed and original textbook resource book on English education It covers theory and practice elementary and secondary drama oral language activities and initial literacy as well as general reading and writing Furthermore verbal learning is placed in a social context and in the context of nonverbal media and arts that compete with and complement language The authors have made this edition more compact by shifting some material to a new edition of Active Voice and by abridging matters that no longer need to be dealt with at length because the profession is catching up with the book They have recast some matters to tie in with current vocabulary and understanding and some practices have been updated to utilize current technology In this fourth edition the book is shorter in length but broader in perspective as it continues to break new ground to integrate language arts with other learning The Blue Book on Information Age Inquiry,

Instruction and Literacy Daniel Callison, Leslie B. Preddy, 2006-09-30 Based on many years of columns from School Library Media Activities Monthly authors Daniel Callison and Leslie Preddy present key terms in a working theoretical model that may be used in developing and understanding the power of information inquiry in instruction This book is both a revision and an update to Key Words Concepts and Methods for Information Age Instruction LMS Associates 2003 New columns from School Library Media Activities Monthly are included and entirely new key words for instruction are introduced These key terms have immediate value for staff development purposes They are reproducible and can be used in building year long study group programmes in schools and libraries or as weekly discussion handouts An entirely new section on inquiry has been added An in depth and invaluable section of resources and web sites has been updated In addition to the theoretical base the authors include much practical instructional application for immediate use The Blue Book on Information Age Inquiry Instruction and Literacy is the new definitive work on information inquiry and information literacy instruction The authors have thoughtfully blended theories in education and library science in a book that finally gives us a picture of the huge role of the school library media specialist as both a teacher and a librarian who needs to understand interpret and instruct students in the skill of inquiry the basis of all learning Back cover
