Written On Her Heart:

She Let God Write Her Story Yelena Borichevska, 2022-04-14 The story of a young girl who moved from Ukraine to the United States shortly after 9/11. The story of how a girl's desire to please God and choose his will for her life put her through trials and challenges of life. Yelena was born and raised in Rivne, Ukraine, and moved to America's Vancouver when she was almost seventeen. Yelena has always considered herself blessed beyond limits because of being raised by her God-loving and God-fearing parents. She considers her parents, siblings, friends, and every individual that touched her life as the greatest gifts from the most generous God. She has always been passionate about doing everything for God's glory and choosing his will for her life. Yelena strongly believes that believing in God's perfect salvation plan through Jesus and having a personal close relationship with God can get anyone through any challenges and trials in life. Plus, the believing offers the greatest hope for an amazing eternity. She also believes that trials are an integral part of anyone's life, allowed by God for us to grow and exercise trust and dependence on him as he desires to be our greatest resource, helper, and advocate, which he achieves through the Holy Spirit. If we let him, Yelena has been married to her husband Vitaliy since 2008. She loves being a mom to her daughter Ashley. She has two brothers, five sisters, thirteen nephews, and six nieces. For over a decade, Yelena worked in the local health care where she poured her love and skills into patients and coworkers. She runs a successful real estate business which rewards her with happy clients and finances she can generously share with those in need, as she always dreamed and is working on reaching other dreams and goals that God has carved in her heart. Yelena loves spending time with her family, travelling, being in nature, rollerblading, reading, and impacting others in a positive way. Even if it is just giving them her smile.

The Westminster, 1903 My Heart's in the Highlands Maria M. Grant, 1878 American Gothic Gene Smith, 2016-10-04 A New York Times bestselling author's lively account of a family of famous actors who became notorious after the assassination of President Lincoln. The New Yorker Junius Booth and his sons Edwin and John Wilkes were nineteenth century America's most famous theatrical family. Yet the Booth name is forever etched in the history books for one terrible reason: the assassination of President Abraham Lincoln by John Wilkes Booth at Ford's Theatre on April 14, 1865. In American Gothic, bestselling historian Gene Smith vividly chronicles the triumphs, scandals, and tragedies of this infamous family. The preeminent English tragedian of his day, Junius Booth, was a madman and an alcoholic who abandoned his wife and young son to move to America and start a new family. His son Edwin became the most renowned Shakespearean actor in America famously playing Hamlet for one hundred consecutive nights but he suffered from depression and a crippling fear of inheriting his father's insanity Blessed with extraordinary good looks and a gregarious nature John Wilkes Booth seemed destined for spectacular fame and fortune However his sympathy for the Confederate cause unleashed a dangerous instability that brought permanent disgrace to his family and forever changed the course of American history Richly detailed and emotionally insightful American Gothic is a ripping good tale that brings to life the true story behind a family tragedy of Shakespearean proportions The New York Times
