Stories From Another World:

Untold Stories in Organizations Michal Izak, Linda Hitchin, David Anderson, 2014-11-13 The field of organizational storytelling research is productive vibrant and diverse Over three decades we have come to understand how organizations are not only full of stories but also how stories are actively making sustaining and changing organizations This edited collection contributes to this body of work by paying specific attention to stories that are neglected edited out unintentionally omitted or deliberately left silent Despite the fact that such stories are not voiced they have a role to play in organizational analysis The chapters in this volume variously explore how certain realities become excluded or silenced The stories that remain below the audible range in organizations offer researchers an access to study political practices which marginalise certain organisational realities whilst promoting others This volume offers a further contribution by paying heed to silence and the processes of silencing These silences influence the choice of issues on organisational agendas the choice of audience s to which these discourses are addressed and the ways of addressing them In exploring these relatively understudied terrains Untold Stories in Organizations comprises an important contribution to the organizational storytelling space opening paths for new trajectories in storytelling research

Tense, Reference, and Worldmaking James Alasdair

McGilvray, 1991 The tenses of natural languages are intimately connected with the abilities we have to relate real or fictional stories that take place outside our immediate temporal or spacial context While philosophers and cognitive scientists have had difficulty coming to terms with these abilities James McGilvray maintains that they must be understood before an adequate view of what a tense is can be constructed

Amazing Stories, 1926 Rebuilding Story Worlds Jan Baetens, 2020-06-12 A collaboration between Belgian artist Fran ois Schuiten and French writer Beno t Peeters The Obscure Cities is one of the few comics series to achieve massive popularity while remaining highly experimental in form and content Set in a parallel world full of architecturally distinctive city states The Obscure Cities also represents one of the most impressive pieces of world building in any form of literature Rebuilding Story Worlds offers the first full length study of this seminal series exploring both the artistic traditions from which it emerges and the innovative ways it plays with genre gender and urban space Comics scholar Jan Baetens examines how Schuiten s work as an architectural designer informs the series concerns with the preservation of historic buildings He also includes an original interview with Peeters which reveals how poststructuralist critical theory influenced their construction of a rhizomatic fictional world one which has made space for fan contributions through the Alta Plana website Synthesizing cutting edge approaches from both literary and visual studies Rebuilding Story Worlds will give readers a new appreciation for both the aesthetic ingenuity of The Obscure Cities and its nuanced conception of politics

 Language in Strange and Familiar Places Alexandra Y. Aikhenvald,Anne Storch,Viveka Velupillai,2025-06-02 Language and place are intimately connected depending on where we are what the context is and what our aims are we will adjust our language accordingly Yet linguistics defines itself by a framework that determines which kind of language is worth investigating Within that framework linguistics constructs both language and place in multiple ways language as a sequestered thing belongs to the field site or the classroom language as fluid practice is associated with the street language as reconstruction belongs to migration corridors What about the places that tend to fall between the cracks This volume explores language in strange and familiar places from Europe to Africa Amazonia Australia and the Pacific in order to shed
