Little Stories of Quebec (Classic Reprint) James Edward Le Rossignol, 2015-07-19 Excerpt from Little Stories of Quebec
Madame Lepine sat alone at the window of no 62 Rue du Bon Secours in the suburb Of St Sauveur de Quebec knitting industriously but at the same time gazing intently down the street It was near the hour Of eight in the evening but the long northern twilight had not yet begun to darken the little room At eight o'clock precisely Philippe would come For had they not been married the week before and was not Philippe since three days foreman in the great shipyard of Thibeau Freres and was it not his privilege to leave the yard at half past seven every evening during this whole month of June It was two miles the distance but he would be with his dear Belvine at eight o'clock without fail She would have dinner ready for him It was ready now After that they would go to walk on the Esplanade Her fair face lighted up as his step sounded in the distance Her dark eyes brightened they even glistened as she saw him coming round the corner She met him at the door They greeted one another with a kiss Together they sat down to their frugal meal There was only soupe aux pois and bread for the first course and wild strawberries and bread for the second but it was enough They were not rich They had nothing but Philippe's daily wage They had no relations living They were alone they two in the world But that was no trouble It was enough that they were together SO Belvine said and so said also Father Grandmaison the little cure Of St Sauveur St Sauveur was not a rich parish as it is now and Father Grandmaison lived in a very little house He too was poor but he was their friend He had gotten Philippe his place at the shipyard He would also find sale for all the stockings and sashes and tuques that Belvine might knit For each piece she would get two sous more than any other woman in Quebec she could knit so well All was prosperous There was no trouble that is there was only one There is always one little trouble to keep us from being too happy It was a debt It was not a large debt only three pounds and five shillings It had been more than that but Belvine had paid already two pounds and ten shillings her savings for three years While she had been domestic at the house of one of the rich men of St Sauveur It was for her trousseau of course That was necessary Also Philippe had bought a new coat for the ceremony It was the debt of both and both would pay it The great house of Laviolette et Fils would wait M Laviolette himself had said so I trust you mademoiselle he had said I knew your father He was a good man And Philippe too he has the heart of gold Ah those words How they did cheer the soul Yes they would pay very soon perhaps in two months About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
