Firth, Richard F. Neville

Supervision Of Instruction:

Supervision Peter Burke, Robert D. Krey, 2005 The first edition of this book titled A DESIGN FOR INSTRUCTIONAL SUPERVISION provided a structural framework for an effective program of instructional supervision The basic cognitive thrust of this second edition SUPERVISION A Guide to Instructional Leadership remains the same as the first What has changed is the attention to the detail surrounding the design components References have been updated and streamlined activities have been modified and examples of structure have been created using the current national policy situation as a base Philosophical and historical definitions of supervision are maintained and expanded in this edition It will help professionals with responsibilities for instructional leadership design a supervisory program that fits a local situation by taking advantage of the foundation provided herein Attention is given to the selection of and the interrelationships between those assumptions principles objectives criteria and procedures so that planners of supervisory programs will gain the knowledge and tools necessary to create that structure from this book It also provides a means for schools to have a well conceived carefully designed properly implemented and continuously evaluated plan for the supervision of instruction in order to reply competently to state and federally mandated assessments for students In addition personal perspectives of the authors are presented in each part of the text The book will serve as a guide and provide direction to instructional supervisors directors of services principals administrators at all levels teachers grade level or department chairs and others interested in the management of instruction in the school setting

Supervision of Instruction Carl D. Glickman, 1990 Emphasizing democratic decision making this graduate level textbook takes a broad field approach to the multiple skills techniques and tasks of educational supervision Chapters can also be useful in planning and implementing direct assistance to teachers staff development and program evaluation Following introductory material sections cover knowledge interpersonal skills technical skills tasks of supervision and the function of supervision Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Supervision for Today's Schools George E. Pawlas, Peter F. Oliva, 2007-06-29 Specifically designed for the introductory course this text provides an overview of the field of instructional supervision Acquaints students with not only the authors views on supervision but with those of other specialists in the field placing heavy emphasis on practice and the supervisor s responsibilities as an instructional leader Continues to stress that the relationship between the supervisor and teacher is built on trust and that the overall goal is to improve student achievement through better instruction

Supervision of Instruction Glen G. Eye, Lanore A. Netzer, 1965 Both those who are beginners and those who have spent many years in studying the purposes and processes of administration may well be intrigued with this book It deals with the heart of all efforts to provide a sound educational program The title itself cuts through the core of the administrative enterprise Administration always has had the responsibility of encouraging maximum accomplishment in both learning and teaching This book is particularly focused on the administrative responsibilities of the instructional program Many books in administration deal mainly with the non instructional tasks and many books in supervision deal with the non managerial tasks But both apparently deal with esoteric tasks which constitute ends rather than means The refreshing and refreshingly different aspects of this book are the amalgamations of instructional and managerial concerns as integral parts of administration Those who wish to question their own professional efforts will find in this book not only an incentive for increased purposeful activities but also an opportunity to structure and appraise their own behaviors as instruments for instructional improvement Introduction John Guy Fowlkes

The Supervision of Instruction Hubert Wilbur Nutt,1920
The following discussion and analysis of the elements of the supervisory process and statement of the technique and professional standards for the supervision of instruction will be read with interest by those who are concerned with the work of school supervision The fundamental purpose of all school supervision is to increase the efficiency of the classroom teacher For a supervisor to be constructively critical and helpful requires a good understanding of both the purposes and the technique of supervision and the fundamental principles and methods underlying such helpful and constructive service the author of the present volume has here set forth

Instructional Supervision Sally J. Zepeda,2013-09-27 This highly regarded book is a must have resource for all graduate level students and prospective school leaders enrolled in courses in instructional supervision It is also a valuable guide for anyone currently in a leadership position with responsibility for supervising student teachers Dr Zepeda provides both practical tools and strategies needed for classroom observations and pre and post observation conferences laying a strong foundation for effective instructional supervision in preK 12 schools The updated third edition includes research supported strategies to help supervisors work successfully with teachers authentic case studies classroom examples and field experiences in depth coverage of professional development and its link to teacher evaluation reflection prompts pragmatic tips self assessments and suggested activities
