Marsilio Ficino and His World Sophia Howlett, 2016-08-27 This book makes the case for Marsilio Ficino a Renaissance philosopher and priest as a canonical thinker and provides an introduction for a broad audience Sophia Howlett examines him as part of the milieu of Renaissance Florence part of a history of Platonic philosophy and as a key figure in the ongoing crisis between classical revivalism and Christian belief The author discusses Ficino's vision of a Platonic Christian universe with multiple worlds inhabited by angels, demons, and pagan gods as well as our own distinctive role within that universe climbing the heights to talk with angels yet constantly confused by the evidence of our own senses Ficino as the new Socrates suggests to us that by changing ourselves we can change our world Angels and the Order of Heaven in Medieval and Renaissance Italy

Meredith J. Gill, 2014-09-22 This book examines the role of angels in medieval and Renaissance art and religion from Dante to the Counter Reformation The Myth of Sisyphus Elliott M. Simon, 2007 The myth of Sisyphus symbolizes the archetypal process of becoming without the consolation of absolute achievement It is both a poignant reflection of the human condition and a prominent framing text for classical, medieval, and Renaissance theories of human perfectibility In this unique reading of the myth through classical philosophies, pagan and Christian religious doctrines, and medieval and Renaissance literature we see Sisyphus, the most cunning of human beings, attempting to transcend his imperfections, empowered by his imagination to renew his faith in the infinite potentialities of human excellence

BOOK JACKET Greek Scholars between East and West in the Fifteenth Century John Monfasani, 2023-05-31 Although the immense importance for the Renaissance of Greek migrants to fifteenth-century Italy has long been recognized, much basic research on the phenomenon remains to be done This new volume by John Monfasani gathers together fourteen studies filling in some of the gaps in our knowledge The philosophers George Gemistus Pletho and George Amiroutzes, the great churchman Cardinal Bessarion, and the famous humanists George of Trebizond and Theodore Gaza are the subjects of some of the articles Other articles treat the migrants as a group within the wider frame of contemporary issues such as humanism, the theological debate between the Orthodox and Roman Catholics, and the process of translating Greek texts into Latin Furthermore, some notable Latin figures also enter into several of the articles in a detailed way, specifically Nicholas of Cusa, Niccolò Perotti, and Pietro Balbi
