Abstract

This essay is addressing the issues of teachers, their work place and their motivation, additionally analyzing the issue when the standards of trust and moral responsiveness which attributed to administrators and supervisors are higher than to teachers.

Introduction

In analyzing the administration and supervision as a general concept, some other issues such as responsibility and moral values should be addressed. This statement is especially true when the concept of administration is realized in such a work place as school. The school and the educational system as whole is combined of such factors as competency and effectiveness. However, these issues should be realized in different perspectives according to the teachers and indeed the school administration.

Analysis

School always reflects the processes of changes in the all spheres of the vital activities of people. The reconstructions in the society created real prerequisites for the democratization and humanizations of schools, for the renovation of control system of education.

If understanding the motives, which impel man to be active, it is possible to purposefully influence his behavior and his performance. Analysis and actualization of motives have important significance for the administrative sectors. In addition it could be noted that leaders, teachers, trainer, who are familiar on how to motivate others, in general, reach considerable results.

The motivation in general and the motivation of the teacher in particular, is one of the fundamental problems for psychology and pedagogy. Its significance for the
