

Supreme Faith

One's listening.

There is no limit to the power dwelling in a single word.

One's believing.

Fresh taste of confidence's severely intoxicating.

One's acting.

Nothing's more despicable than staying idle.

We hear, we know and we are right.

We are the faith.

Faithfulness and the Purpose of Hebrews Matthew J. Marohl, 2008-01-01 Faithfulness and the Purpose of Hebrews Offers Fresh Answers to Several unresolved questions by employing that branch of social psychology known as social identity theory Who were the addressees With the categories of social identity theory this study argues that the addressees arranged the world into two groups us and them They understood their group the us to be the faithful They understood them a symbolic outgroup of all others to be the unfaithful Faithfulness then is the primary identity descriptor for the addressees and plays an essential role throughout the text How did the addressees understand the faithfulness of Jesus

The author of Hebrews describes the faithfulness of Jesus as prototypical. The faithfulness of all others is described in relation to Jesus' faith, and together they are integrated into an ongoing narrative of faithfulness. What is the meaning of the promised rest? Utilizing a model of present temporal orientation, the study interprets the dynamic relationship between the antecedent faithfulness of many witnesses and the forthcoming promised rest of the addressees. The addressees of Hebrews were encouraged to understand their futures by looking to the past. What is the purpose of the text? Social identity theorists explain that groups with a negative social identity have two broad options: social mobility or social change. The study concludes that the author of Hebrews provides internal constraints that are meant to prevent social mobility. The author utilizes social creativity, an aspect of social change, to provide a positive social identity for the addressees. Marohl's welcome study represents an accomplished application of social identity theory to the text of Hebrews. His methodological attentiveness is mature and responsible, resulting in an articulate analysis that recognizes the faithfulness of Jesus to be the theological centre that informs the socio-religious program advocated by the author of Hebrews. Bruce Longenecker, University of St Andrews.
