Sur La Lecture:

Voluptuous Philosophy Natania Meeker, 2006 In 18th century France matter itself in forms ranging from atoms to anatomies became a privileged object of study This book defines what is at stake in the emergence of an enlightened secular materialism by showing how questions of figure are consistently located at the very heart of 18th century debates on the nature of material substance

Finding the Plot Loïc Artiago, Diana Holmes, David Platten, 2014-08-11 Plot writes Peter Brooks is so basic to our very experience of reading and indeed to our articulation of experience in general that criticism has often passed it over in silence Reading for the Plot xi Finding the Plot both explores and helps to redress this critical neglect The book brings together an international group of scholars to address the nature effects and specific pleasures of consuming stories If the central focus is on France and popular literary fiction the book s scope like contemporary fiction itself observes no national frontiers and extends across a variety of media The book addresses both the empirical question of which genres and types of text have been and are most popular and the theoretical questions of how plots work what pleasures they offer to readers and why it matters that the plot should not be lost

The Moving Tablet of the Eye Nicholas Wade, Benjamin Tatler, 2005-06-30 Tracing the history of eye movement research this work shows how great strides were made in this area before modern recording devices were available especially in the measurement of nystagmus
