Abandoned Children Rachel G. Fuchs,1984-01-01 In nineteenth century France parents abandoned their children in overwhelming numbers up to 20 percent of live births in the Parisian area The infants were left at state run homes and were then transferred to rural wet nurses and foster parents Their chances of survival were slim but with alterations in state policy economic and medical development and changing attitudes toward children and the family their chances had significantly improved by the end of the century Rachel Fuchs has drawn on newly discovered archival sources and previously untapped documents of the Paris foundling home in order to depict the actual conditions of abandoned children and to reveal the bureaucratic and political response This study traces the evolution of French social policy from early attempts to limit welfare to later efforts to increase social programs and influence family life Abandoned Children illuminates in detail the family life of nineteenth century French poor It shows how French social policy with respect to abandoned children sought to create an economically useful and politically neutral underclass out of a segment of the population that might otherwise have been an economic drain and a potential political threat Expériences Sur Le Tirage Des Voitures, Faites En 1837 Et 1838 Morin Arthur Jules,2025-07-26 Reprint of the original first published in 1839 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage The Mystery of the Yellow Room Gaston Leroux ,2018-08-29 THIS EDITION The Mystery of the Yellow Room in French Le Myst re de la chambre jaune is a classic French locked room mystery novel written by Gaston Leroux A Dual Language Book Project 2Language Books Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum,1893 The Studio ,1902 Dictionnaire D'archéologie Chrétienne Et de Liturgie, Publié Par Le R.
