

A father and his son are involved in a horrific car crash and the man died at the scene. But when the child arrived at the hospital and was rushed into the operating theatre, the surgeon pulled away and said: “I can’t operate on this boy, he’s my son”.

How can this be? Have you worked it out yet? How long did it take?

This story - called the surgeon's dilemma - is often used to demonstrate the way that unconscious bias works. Of course, the surgeon is the boy's mother.
