The Citroen 2cv:

Citroën 2CV Malcolm Bobbitt, 2019-07-15 Illustrated with a unique collection of high quality photographs and written by an authority on Citroën cars this concise book tells you all you need to know about the famous 2CV Sixty Years of the Citroën 2CV John Reynolds, 1997 Twelve years in design and development and 41 years in manufacture the Citroen 2CV is one of the longest running motoring success stories Almost seven million of its various versions were built and this text chronicles the conception life and death of the French people's car Citroen 2CV Matt White, 2004-11 The Citroen 2CV is a true classic and deserves its place in motoring history Originally designed as a cheap and simple car for use in the French countryside it became accepted as a fashionable means of transport for city dwellers Citroën 2CV Matt White, 1999 Citroen 2CV Matt White The Citroen 2CV was designed as an inexpensive car for rural France in the early post war years With its twin cylinder engine and basic interior it was ideal for taking produce to the market and its high ground clearance enabled it to cross rough country roads with ease Later developments added a level of refinement but the car never lost its immense appeal Here Matt White tells the full story and includes details of the 2CV racing class that has a following all its own Hdbd 7 1 2x 9 1 2 2 pgs 15 b w ill 8 color pgs Citroën 2cv Alexandru Dobai, 2025-01-11 The Ugly Duckling was born twice The first time in 1939 blind in one eye and with a water cooled engine The second time in 1948 air cooled in a configuration that would remain largely unchanged over the years By the end of 1977 three million units had been sold And the 2CV boom continued to astonish the world What had been conceived as a solution for post war transportation had become a trendy car A vehicle that students workers housewives and artists could afford A car that evokes nostalgia no matter the social class of its owner Yet the creators of the Citroën 2CV had no intention of designing a fun car The Deuce came to life thanks to French rationalism combined with the boldness to defy conventions In 1936 Pierre Boulanger Citroën's president at the time tasked his designers with developing a car with four wheels under an umbrella He specified his ideas as follows The umbrella had to provide comfortable shelter for four people It had to be capable of running at least 50 kilometers per hour And one should be able to load a basket full of eggs inside without breaking any of them along the way Three years later in 1939 no fewer than 250 prototypes were completed However the first ducks looked rather frightening The corrugated sheet metal seemed haphazardly assembled the seats resembled hammocks and the single headlight gave it the appearance of a pirate In 1948 three years after the end of the war the Ugly Duckling reemerged from obscurity But in the meantime it had evolved into the automobile that would be produced until 1990 The one and a half million visitors at the 1948 Paris Motor Show saw the Ugly Duckling as a revelation a savior of mobility in an era marked by economic hardships The French and soon not only them were amazed to see how this four wheeled umbrella navigated the potholes of plowed fields with remarkable ease in a fluid and secure motion The first 2CV's 375cc engine produced eight horsepower enough to reach a top speed of 55 km/h The design principle was as logical as it was ingenious focus on everything related to safety driving comfort durability and reliability while eliminating anything superfluous or prone to breakage Over time improvements were made to both the equipment and body quality This was accompanied by a systematic and gradual increase in engine power eventually reaching a 600cc 25 horsepower version This made the Citroën 2CV the only car to triple its horsepower since its inception The full story and much more awaits you in 230 captivating pages that if they don't revive your memories will undoubtedly make you smile at the many adventures of the Ugly Duckling
