Russ Shafer-Landau

They Must Be Represented:

They Must Be Represented Paula Rabinowitz,2020-05-05 They Must Be Represented examines documentary in print photography television and film from the 1930s through the 1980s using the lens of recent feminist film theory as well as scholarship on race class and gender emerging from the new interdisciplinary approach of American cultural studies Paula Rabinowitz discusses the ways in which these four media shaped truth claims and political agency over the decades in the 1930s about poverty labor and popular culture during the depression in the 1960s about the Vietnam War racism work and counterculture and in the 1980s about feminist and gay critiques of gender history narrative and cinema A great deal of documentary expression has been influenced by developments in cultural anthropology as committed artists brought their cameras and typewriters into the field not only to report but also to change the world Yet recently the projects of both anthropology and documentary have come under scrutiny Rabinowitz argues that the gendering of vision that occurs when narratives confirm to conventional genres profoundly affects the relation of documentarian to subject She goes on to define this gendering of vision in documentary as an ethnographic process Ultimately this polemical study challenges the construction of the spectator in psychoanalytic film theory and articulates a new model for theorizing power relations in culture and history The Theological and Literary Journal ,1856 The Bee-keepers' Review ,1903 Ethical Theory Russ Shafer-Landau,2012-06-20 The second edition of Ethical Theory An Anthology features a comprehensive collection of more than 80 essays from classic and contemporary philosophers that address questions at the heart of moral philosophy Brings together 82 classic and contemporary pieces by renowned philosophers from seminal works by Hume and Kant to contemporary views by Derek Parfit Susan Wolf Judith Jarvis Thomson and many more Features updates and the inclusion of a new section on feminist ethics along with a general introduction and section introductions by Russ Shafer Landau Guides readers through key areas in ethical theory including consequentialism deontology contractarianism and virtue ethics Includes underrepresented topics such as moral knowledge moral standing moral responsibility and ethical particularism
