Reading at the Limits of Poetic Form Jacob McGuinn,2024-05-15 Pushing the boundaries of critical reading and the role of objects in literature How does literary objecthood contend with the challenge of writing objects that emerge at an extreme limit of material presence Jacob McGuinn delves into the ways literature writes this indeterminate presence in the context of pre and post 68 Paris a vital moment in the history of criticism The works of poet Paul Celan philosopher Theodor Adorno and writer Maurice Blanchot highlight how the complexities of reading such a dematerialized object are part of the indeterminacy of material itself Indeterminate objects glass snow walls screens are subjects Celan describes as existing in meridian space while for Adorno and Blanchot criticism not only responds to this indeterminacy but also takes it as its condition Reading at the Limits of Poetic Form Dematerialization in Adorno Blanchot and Celan shows how these readings simultaneously limit the object of criticism and outline alternative ways of thinking that lie between the models of critical formalism and historicism ultimately revealing the possible materiality of literature in unrealized history incomplete politics and nondetermining thinking

The Retrieval of the Beautiful Galen A. Johnson,2010 In this elegant new study Galen Johnson retrieves the concept of the beautiful through the framework of Merleau Ponty s aesthetics Although Merleau Ponty seldom spoke directly of beauty his philosophy is essentially about the beautiful In Johnson s formulation the ontology of Flesh as element and the ontology of the Beautiful as elemental are folded together for Desire Love and Beauty are part of the fabric of the world s element Flesh itself the term at which Merleau Ponty arrived to replace Substance Matter or Life as the name of Being Merleau Ponty s Eye and Mind is at the core of the book so Johnson engages as Merleau Ponty did the writings and visual work of Paul C zanne Auguste Rodin and Paul Klee as well as Rilke s commentary on C zanne and Rodin From these widely varying aesthetics emerge the fundamental themes of the retrieval of the beautiful desire repetition difference rhythm and the sublime The third part of Johnson s book takes each of these up in turn bringing Merleau Ponty s aesthetic thinking into dialogue with classical philosophy as well as Sartre Heidegger Nietzsche and Deleuze Johnson concludes his final chapter with a direct dialogue with Kant and Merleau Ponty and also Lyotard on the subject of the beautiful and the sublime As we experience with Rodin s Balzac beauty and the sublime blend into one another when the beautiful grows powerful majestic mysterious and transcendent

Thinking Through the Imagination John Kaag, 2014-02-03 Use your imagination The demand is as important as it is confusing What is the imagination What is its value Where does it come from And where is it going in a time when even the obscene seems overdone and pass This book takes up these questions and argues for the centrality of imagination in human cognition It traces the development of the imagination in Kant's critical philosophy particularly the Critique of Aesthetic Judgment and claims that the insights of Kantian aesthetic theory especially concerning the nature of creativity common sense and genius influenced the development of nineteenth century American philosophy The book identifies the central role of the imagination in the philosophy of Peirce a role often overlooked in analytic treatments of his thought The final chapters pursue the observation made by Kant and Peirce that imaginative genius is a type of natural gift ingenium and must in some way be continuous with the creative force of nature It makes this final turn by way of contemporary studies of metaphor embodied cognition and cognitive neuroscience
