Black Women Novelists and the Nationalist Aesthetic Madhu Dubey,1994 Focus on the works of Toni Morrison Gaye Jones and Alice Walker

The Concise Oxford Companion to African American Literature William L. Andrews,Frances Smith Foster,Trudier Harris,2001-02-15 A breathtaking achievement this Concise Companion is a suitable crown to the astonishing production in African American literature and criticism that has swept over American literary studies in the last two decades It offers an enormous range of writers from Sojourner Truth to Frederick Douglass from Zora Neale Hurston to Ralph Ellison and from Toni Morrison to August Wilson It contains entries on major works including synopses of novels such as Harriet Jacobs s Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl Richard Wright s Native Son and Lorraine Hansberry s A Raisin in the Sun It also incorporates information on literary characters such as Bigger Thomas Coffin Ed Johnson Kunta Kinte Sula Peace as well as on character types such as Aunt Jemima Brer Rabbit John Henry Stackolee and the trickster Icons of black culture are addressed including vivid details about the lives of Muhammad Ali John Coltrane Marcus Garvey Jackie Robinson John Brown and Harriet Tubman Here too are general articles on poetry fiction and drama on autobiography slave narratives Sunday School literature and oratory as well as on a wide spectrum of related topics Compact yet thorough this handy volume gathers works from a vast array of sources from the black periodical press to women s clubs making it one of the most substantial guides available on the growing exciting world of African American literature

Native Sons in No Man's Land Philip Auger,2000 With the study of selected novels by Baldwin Walker Wideman and Gaines Native Sons in No Man s Land examines the discursive politics involved in the rewriting of such powerless inarticulate versions of black manhood as that codified by Richard Wright in Native Sons Bigger Thomas The novels treated in this study present their writers sharing a desire to transcend the language barriers that control mainstream definitions of Black manhood A close critical reading of these texts reveals a great deal about the American and specifically Afro American aspiration to manly identity about the relationship between one s sense of manhood and one s control of discourse and about the power of language to shape identity

Discourse and the Other W. Lawrence Hogue,1986-11-25 The central thesis of Lawrence Hogue s book is that criticism of Afro American literature has left out of account the way in which ideological pressures dictate the canon This fresh approach to the study of the social ideological and political dynamics of the Afro American literary text in the twentieth century based on the Foucauldian concept of literature as social institution examines the universalization that power effects how literary texts are appropriated to meet ideological concerns and needs and the continued oppression of dissenting voices Hogue presents an illuminating discussion of the publication and review history of major and neglected texts He illustrates the acceptance of texts as exotica as sociological documents or as carriers of sufficient literary conventions to receive approbation Although the sixties movement allowed the text to move to the periphery of the dominant ideology providing some new myths about the Afro American historical past this marginal position was subsequently sabotaged co opted or appropriated Afros became a fad presidents gave the soul handshake the hip talking black was dressing one style and talking another This study includes extended discussion of four works Ernest J Gaines s The Autobiography of Miss Jane Pittman Alice Walker s The Third Life of Grange Copeland Albert Murray s Train Whistle Guitar and Toni Morrison s Sula Hogue assesses the informing worldviews of each and the extent and nature of their acceptance by the dominant American cultural apparatus

Alice Walker Gerri Bates,2005-10-30 Alice Walker born in Eatonton Georgia in 1944 overcame a disadvantaged sharecropping background blindness in one eye and the tense times of the Civil Rights Movement to become one of the world s most respected African American writers While attending both Spelman and Sarah Lawrence Colleges Walker began to draw on both her personal tragedies and those of her community to write poetry essays short stories and novels that would tell the virtually untold stories of oppressed African and African American women providing readers with hope and inspiring activism Perhaps best known for her novel The Color Purple 1982 which won the Pulitzer Prize in 1983 and became a controversial film three years later Walker has introduced and developed womanist theory criticism and practice and continues to champion the causes of women of color by encouraging their strength and liberation in her life and her writings Literary works analyzed in this volume The Third Life of Grange Copeland Meridian The Color Purple The Temple of My Familiar Possessing the Secret of Joy By the Light of My Father s Smile The Way Forward Is With a Broken Heart Now is the Time to Open Your Heart

Alice Walker's Womanist Fiction Iman Hami,2023-04-26 A theory formulated by Alice Walker womanism focuses on the unification of men and women with Nature and Earth This book explores womanism with regards to its specific concerns with African American women s rights identities and self actualisation and points towards its more overarching concerns with human relations and sexual freedom as expressed in each of Walker s seven novels Although Walker introduced the term womanism in 1983 this book traces the development of the concept across her canon of fictional works By analysing the novels written in the 1970s this book establishes how the term came to be coined and demonstrates how womanism went on to be further developed and complexly wrought throughout Walker s literary career
