Thirty-One Selected Tales He Bates,1951      The Short Story Valerie Shaw,2014-07-21 Throughout this text Valerie Shaw addresses two key questions What are the special satisfactions afforded by reading short stories and How are these satisfactions derived from each story s literary techniques and narrative strategies She then attempts to answer these questions by drawing on stories from different periods and countries by authors who were also great novelists like Henry James Flaubert Kafka and D H Lawrence by authors who specifically dedicated themselves to the art of the short story like Kipling Chekhov and Katherine Mansfield by contemporary practitioners like Angela Carter and Jorge Luis Borges and by unfairly neglected writers like Sarah Orne Jewett and Joel Chandler Harris      What Shall I Read Next? F. Seymour Smith,1953-01-02 Originally published in 1953 What Shall I Read Next lists nearly 2000 works published after 1900 with the compiler s own appreciatory comments on selected items It was a companion volume to Mr Seymour Smith s English Library Both books are published on behalf of the National Book League In his introduction explaining the scope and purpose of the book Mr Seymour Smith wrote Some will find it useful merely as a shopping list reminding them of books they know something about already and serving as a remembrancer To others and particularly to younger readers it may introduce books which have so far escaped their notice It is hoped too that for booksellers and librarians it will have a practical use as a desk book for answering enquiries for serving as a check list for stock and for use as a reference book when memory fails
