Women's Work Ferren Gipson,2022-06-14 This powerful and insightful work offers a bold celebration of the innovative brilliant artists reclaiming the idea of women s work In the history of western art decorative and applied arts including textiles and ceramics have been separated from the high arts of painting and sculpture and deemed to be more suitable for women Artists began to reclaim and redefine these materials and methods energizing them with expressions of identity and imagination Women s Work tells the story of this radical change highlighting some of the modern and contemporary artists who dared to defy this hierarchy and who through experimentation and invention transformed their medium The work of these women has helped underscore the ongoing value of these art forms within the history of art championing women s work as powerful mediums worthy of celebration With biographical entries on each artist featured as well as beautiful images of their artworks Women s Work raises up the work of these visionary and groundbreaking artists telling their stories and examining their artistic legacies

Design in Motion Laura A. Frahm,2022-07-19 The first comprehensive history in English of film at the Bauhaus exploring practices that experimented with film as an adaptable elastic polymedium With Design in Motion Laura Frahm proposes an alternate history of the Bauhaus one in which visual media and film in particular are crucial to the Bauhaus s visionary pursuit of integrating art and technology In the first comprehensive examination in English of film at the Bauhaus Frahm shows that experimentation with film spanned a range of Bauhaus practices from textiles and typography to stage and exhibition design Indeed Bauhausler deployed film as an adaptable elastic polymedium malleable in shape and form unfolding and refracting into multiple material aesthetic and philosophical directions Frahm shows how the encounter with film imbued the Bauhaus of the 1920s and early 1930s with a flexible notion of design infusing painting with temporal concepts sculptures with moving forms photographs with sequential aesthetics architectural designs with a choreography of movement Frahm considers among other things student works that explored light and the transparent features of celluloid and cellophane weaving practices that incorporate cellophane experimental films social documentaries and critical reportage by Bauhaus women and the proliferation of film strips in posters book covers and other typographic work Viewing the Bauhaus s engagement with film through a media theoretic lens Frahm shows how film became a medium for design in motion Movement and process rather than stability and fixity become the defining characteristics of Bauhaus educational aesthetic and philosophical ethos
