

Chapter 1

Introduction

This is a sample of  $\LaTeX$  file about how to use the thesis template. To use the template of thesis, you need to download the files `LUthesis.sty`, `sample-thesis.tex`, `Abstract.tex` and `Acknowledgements.tex`.

This template uses a style file instead of a `.cls` file so that we can take the advantages of `report.cls` and make things simpler.

Any input and suggestions are welcomed. You may send an email for comments to

`ruizhong.wei@lakeheadu.ca`

To use this template, you need some basic knowledge about  $\LaTeX$ , which can be easily found by google search with the key word `LaTeX`.

1.1 Main idea

After you downloaded the files, you may type your thesis by editing the three `.tex` files. You may first read the `sample-thesis.tex` and try to understand the command lines in the file. You can do that by comparing the `sample-thesis.tex` and `sample-thesis.pdf` files.

Note that you should use a plain text editor to edit the `.tex` file. You also need a  $\LaTeX$  compiler in your computer. For windows user, you may use MikTeX as a compiler and LEd (Latex Editor) as an editor. These are free software. UNIX system usually has a latex compiler.

prevent another crisis

Narrative Complexity in Christopher Nolan's "Memento". Narrative Structure, Unreliability, Fabula Construction and Cinematography as Key Elements for the Spectator's Manipulation Claudia

Rumms, 2015-10-16 Seminar paper from the year 2015 in the subject Film Science grade 1 3 University of M nster language English abstract In my term paper I will examine the narrative structure in Memento which switches between chronological narration and reversed temporality With respect to this unique narrative structure I will take a closer look at the black and white and colour sequences the opening sequence and the outstanding and resolvent scene 22 A especially regarding the cinematography used In the further course of my work you will learn of the essential role of the unreliable narrator regarding my thesis and finally what impact the fabula construction in Memento has on his viewers Causes and their effects are basic to narrative but they take place in time This quotation from Bordwell s and Thompson s work Film Art an Introduction does not only show a fundamental principle of narration but furthermore depicts a possibility to manipulate the spectator s understanding of a story Christopher Nolan s Memento is one example of what a complex narration can be The film shows two separate stories of Leonard an ex insurance investigator who suffers anterograde amnesia and attempts to find the murderer of his wife which is the last thing he can remember On the one hand there is a forward moving storyline the black and white scenes while the other one the colour sequences tells the story backwards Although the story behind the film is rather simple the narrative structure is extremely complex and clever which demands constant attention from its spectators This term paper will deal with the methods used in Memento which mislead the audience s understanding of the story My thesis is therefore Narrative complexity in Christopher Nolan s Memento Narrative structure Narrator s unreliability fabula construction and cinematography as key elements for the spectator s manipulation Apart from the film Memento the central literature I will work with is the essay by Stefano Ghislotti Narrative Comprehension Made Difficult Film Form and Mnemonic Devices in Memento the documentary Anatomy of a Scene about the making of Memento a text by Andy Klein named Everything You Wanted to Know about Memento and different filmic narrativity by Jakob Lothe David Herman and Edward Branigan In addition to that there is a self generated sequence analysis attached to the term paper in order to have an overall view of the scenes I take a closer look at
