What if it could shape your life? Think Like an Engineer Live Like You is not a textbook. It's a transformational journey, a bold narrative about shifting from fear to focus, from doubt to design, and from uncertainty to self-belief. Whether or not you've worn a lab coat or touched a circuit board, this book invites you to adopt the engineering way of thinking to rebuild how you approach challenges, choices, and even failure. Through real-life reflections, personal battles, and hard-earned lessons, the book explores how problem-solving, structure, logic, and creative design thinking can be powerful tools for building not just systems, but self-confidence, clarity, and courage. Heart Conditions Vanda Millien, 2000-09 For many years I have received requests at my seminars and workshops for a book containing the teachings I have been so privileged to deliver over the last fifteen years. As I do with all situations, I asked for a sign that this proposed book was in accordance with Divine Will and would manifest at the appropriate time. Just one week later, at the end of a meeting, a lady who is also an author suggested the teachings be put in book form. Hence Heart Conditions was born. Everyone has a heart condition, whether spiritual, physical, or both. This book will help you to recognize your heart condition and consequently to change it by shifting your spiritual and physical chemistry through forgiveness, compassion, and love. The teachings are simple stories taken from the experiences and heartbreaks in my life, suggesting how we can collectively transmute our life experiences into personal mastery. It is time for us all to leave behind the repressive conditioning and opinions of society and change our own heart conditions by allowing forgiving and loving. This collection of stories will help you to be courageous enough to take responsibility for who you are and to live your own truth triumphantly. The Miracle I Almost Missed Pam Boyd, 2012-06-14 Many of us have spent years living our romantic lives as if we are victims of our circumstances.
