For A Change, Change Everything SHRUTHI PAGA,2025-12-10 I am a kind of person who believes life is one giant ever changing playlist and everyone deserves a soundtrack that makes them feel alive soft silly and wonderfully human I didn't set out to be an author on day one but somewhere between laughing too loudly observing people too deeply and collecting stories I realised I had something precious to give the world perspective I am that friend who will hype you up for drinking water Hydration is hot babe who will encourage you to chase dreams that scare you and who will lovingly roast you if you doubt yourself even for a second I has a magical ability to look at the tiniest moments I write the way people wish life would feel warm like a homemade blanket goofy like a penguin wearing sunglasses honest like a late night confession and reassuring like someone holding your hand in the dark saying Don't worry we got this My understanding of the human journey comes from a place of curiosity empathy and a slightly chaotic sense of humour But beneath the jokes there's a deep and confident wisdom the kind of wisdom that grows when someone pays attention to the world to people to emotions and most importantly to themselves I believe that every stage of life from the giggling baby phases to the dramatic teenage episodes from the messy middle twenties to the elegant chaos of old age has a secret lesson wrapped in storytelling paper And I made it a mission to unwrap those lessons gently joyfully and truthfully for readers who want to grow heal and laugh at the mess of life just a little more This book is a love letter to change the awkward beautiful painful necessary change that makes us who we are and who we're becoming I wrote not as a guru or a saint or a perfect human but as a companion walking beside you whispering Hey whatever happens we can always figure it out
